Bought From Strangers
 A couple of Scotch girls have been doing the people of Simcoe and Esqopol by selling the natives blue and grey serge. They generally stated that there were 8 yards in the piece, and asked $20. They sold as low as $18.75. When examined by the tailors, the goods were proved to be worthless, nearly pure shoddy. They said that they had intended having the goods made up for themselves, but were out of work and were going to Detroit. They have sold hundreds of pieces.

Business Change
 Mr. B. V. Gibbons has disposed of his bakery business to Mr. N. H. Brown who took possession on Monday. Mr. Brown is a young man, well and favorably known in the community, and will carry on the business with entire satisfaction to the many customers who favored his predecessor with their patronage. Only the best and purest ingredients will be used in the manufacture of his bread and pastry. He will appreciate your patronage and guarantee satisfactory goods and service in return. See advt. in this issue.
