A Near Tragedy To have the front wheels of a motor car struck by a passenger engine and yet escape, was the perye breaking experience of two ladies at Grand Valley station on Saturday night. Thos. A. Richardson of East-Luther had gone to meet the evening train, and as it entered the yard cranked his and as specific This was in reverse, and engine. This was in roverse, and in a moment the motor backed over the platform and down onto eyes of the engineer saw the sitnation, jammed on the emergency brakes, bringing the train to a stop just as the pilot touched the car. Of course the front wheels of the motor were twisted a bit, but it was a mighly close call to a tragedy .- Grand Valley Star.

Herenfter in Ontario the killing of hares and rabbits will not be subject to any restrictions either as to killing or sale under the game laws. The Fish and Game Committee of the Legislature have taken hares and rabbits out of the Game and Fisheries Act for trapping and killing rabbits the whole year round. There was also a change made in the law respecting the shooting of wood. cook. The season was advanced a month and will be from Sept. 16 to Oct. 15, instead of from Oct. 16 to Nov. 15 as heretofore, as complaints have been made that birds had left for the south by the end of October and American sportemen has the advantage.
