Obituary

Mrs. ROBERT McDOWELL.
 After two weeks illness, Mary McLean, beloved wife of Robert McDowell, passed away at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday morning last, Sept. 19th.

Deceased was born at Erin in 1853 and was married to Mr. McDowell 37 years ago in May. Besides her husband she leaves a family of three sons and two daughters all of Toronto, to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and loving mother; also two brothers and one sister—she was a great lover of home and her life was spent in the loving care of her children by whom she will be sadly missed.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at Greenwood cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kiffin of Toronto, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Davidson. The pall-bearers were James McDowell of Hornby, Hugh B. McDowell, James McCartney, Robert McCartney, Robert Buchanan and H. Stapleton. There were numerous floral tributes which bespeak the esteem in which the deceased was held.

How Large Contract.

While the general depression in industry continues to prevail it is gratifying to know that Georgetown manufacturers are able to secure, perhaps more than an ordinary share of trade. Messrs Harley-Kay Limited, who have shipped considerable equipment to mills in New Zealand, have just closed a contract for a large number of their new Automatic Knitting Machines, the shipment to be distributed over a period of the next two years. This business together with home trade, will enable Harley-Kay shops to resume full-time work.

Artist's Narrow Escape.

While coming to town last Friday evening to attend the Masonic Lodge, an auto load from Palmetto Lodge, Toronto, met with what might have proved a fatal accident. While coming around the sharp turn on the paper mill hill the car, a large Studebaker, in some manner left the road and turned completely over down the embankment. By some miraculous manner the occupants escaped serious injury although all were badly shaken up. The car was considerably damaged, the top, one wheel, fenders and windshield being badly smashed. It was brought to O'Neill's Garage on Saturday and is now undergoing repairs.

Special Prize.

In addition to the special prizes listed on page 4, the following has been received: "Best reg. Short-horn female, under 3 years, $5.00 by Lt. Col. Brown."
