Father Goodrow Exonerated

Rev. Father Goodrow of Acton, who was driving the automobile which figured in the accident resulting in the death some days ago, of six year old Gerald Miller, 34 Saunders Avenue, Toronto, was completely exonerated from blame by the Coroner's jury inquiring into the fatality last Wednesday.

Acton Band Entertained

Last Thursday evening Acton Band came to town and serenaded Bandmaster Castell and Mrs. Castell at their home on Main street. After playing a number of selections on the lawn they were invited inside where a sumptuous repast awaited them. An evening of music and social intercourse followed, after which thanks was extended to the host and hostess and all departed feeling better for having been here.

The Secretary of the band said that the past season was one of the most successful in history and a record one in engagements.

High Class Entertainments

The G.W.A. take much pleasure in announcing that they have contracted with the Dominion Chautauquas for a lyceum course of five concerts. These concerts are the best talent that the Chautauquas can produce. The first concert will be held in the town hall on October 29th. Season tickets can be procured for $2.50. Single admission 75c. Secure your season ticket at once as there are only a limited number to be sold at this low price. It is hoped in addition to above talent that our newly formed Orchestra will appear at a few of the concerts.

Thatcher—Early

St. Clement's Church, Jones ave., Toronto, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday afternoon, when Mable May Early, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Early of Norval, was united in holy-bond of matrimony to Edgar Thatcher of Guelph. Rev. C. H. Buckland, M.P.P., officiated. The bride was becomingly attired in blue canton crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia Roses. Hazel Early, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid while Robert Howden acted as groomsman. After the ceremony they sat down to a very dainty luncheon served by Mrs. Brownlee, aunt of the bride. The presents received were numerous showing the high esteem in which the young couple were held. They left on an extended motor trip to Hamilton and Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside in Guelph.

Wilson—Hartley

A very pretty autumn wedding took place on Wednesday at "Mountain View Farm," when Ellen, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Hartley, Milton, became the bride of George Earl Wilson, son of Mrs. George Wilson, Georgetown, Rev. A. E. Marshall officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked lovely in a gown of ivory crepe-de-chine and georgette, trimmed with Chantilly lace embroidered with pearls, and wore the groom's gift, a beautiful string of pearls with a diamond clasp. Her veil of tulle was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. Little Miss Evelyn Walsh, niece of the bride, was flower-girl. After the wedding dinner and the usual toasts, the happy couple left on a motor trip, the bride traveling in a brown broadcloth suit embroidered in the same shade, with matching hat to match. On has resumed his studies at the O.A.C. Guelph.
