BANK OF HAMILTON

G. C. MACKAY Manager

ESTABLISHED 1872

IT may be your fault that your banker does not know the possibilities of your farming operations better than he does.

See him often.

Let to-morrow take care of tomorrow.

Leave things of the future to fate.

What's the use of attributing sorrow?

Life's troubles come never too late.

If to hope overmuch by an error
The one that life will have preferred.

And how often have hearts been in terror

Of evils that never occurred.

Have faith, and thy faith shall sustain thee.

Permit no suspicion and care.

That invisible bond do enchain thee.

But bear what God gives thee
in terror.

By His spirit supported and glad-dened.

Be not by forebodings deterred, But think how hearts have been saddened.

By fear of what never occurred.

Let to-morrow take care of tomorrow.

Shout and dark as our life may appear.

We make it still darker by sorrow Still shorter by folly and fear.

Hail our troubles are hilt our inventions.

And how often from blessings conferred

Have we shrunk in the wild apprehension

Of evils that never occurred.

A FAULT-FINDING, criticising habit is fatal to all excellence.

Nothing will stangle growth quicker than a tendency to hunt flaws, to rejoice in the unlovely, like a hog, which always has his nose in the mud and rarely looks up.

The direction in which he looks indicates the life aim, and people who are always looking for something to criticise, for the crooked and ugly, who are always suspicious, who invariably look at the worst side of others, are but giving the world a picture of themselves. The disposition to see the worst instead of the best grows on one very rapidly, until it ultimately strangles all that is beautiful and crushes out all that is good in himself. No matter how many times your confidence has been betrayed do not allow yourself to sour, do not lose faith in people. The bad are the exceptions; most people are honest and true and mean to do what is right.
