to leave Mansewood for Pennsyl vania, to remain there. He has been pastor of the U.P. Church. for about four years and his de parture will be regretted by a great many friends. His successor has not been appointed. The U.P. congregation in Mansewood is a very old one and is one of the only two now in this country. Of late years its pastors have come from the United States, where has held its own. A union of the U. P. and Boston Churches has been proposed. An obstacle to this is the deed for the U.P. manse and farming land attached.
