Duty of Electors

Good Feeling
A lovely old feeling to feel that you've done something each day to bring some one the sun.
A lovely old feeling to feel that your heart has striven all day to give laughter a start.
A lovely old feeling at last and at rest.
To feel that through all you have stood to the test.
A lovely old feeling to have done what you could.
For somebody's comfort and gladness and good.
A lovely old feeling to feel that you've borne
To somebody's darkness a glimpse of the morn.
A lovely old feeling to feel that you care
Enough to kneel-down and thank God in a prayer.

Obituary

MRS. JOHN SLINGSBY
A very sad death took place at Norval on Monday, when Mary Elizabeth Bird, wife of John Slingsby, passed away at the age of 60 years. Mrs. Slingsby has been a sufferer from pernicious anemia for more than two years, and has of late been deprived of the proper use of her limbs. But she bore her sufferings very patiently, and death came at the last as a welcome release. Mrs. Slingsby was born in England, coming to Canada when quite a young child. Her entire life has been passed in the Norval section, where she was well known and highly esteemed. Although very quiet and retiring in manner, her many friends formed a warm attachment for her, and deep regret has been felt at the news of her decease. Her husband survives, also her mother, five brothers, James, Grimsby; John and Thomas, Stewarstown; William, Winnipeg; and Joseph, Hamilton, and two sisters, Mrs. Fiddler, Norval, and Miss Maggie at home. Mrs. Slingsby was a devoted member of St. Paul's Anglican Church, and will be much missed by its members. The funeral took place last Thursday at St. Paul's Church, Norval. Interment in Norval Cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. M. Twiss.

Address and Presentation

The following address and presentation of $100 was made to Rev. G. E. Henderson by members of Manswood U.P. Church: Manswood, Nov. 14, 1921.
Dear Mr. Henderson:—
If we was with a feeling of much surprise and deep regret that we learned some weeks ago of your intention of resigning as pastor of our congregation and removing from our midst.
During the time of your pastorate you have been ever faithful, by your preaching and life to lead us to the higher and better life. The effect of your work for good on the young lives at the mission will never fade, and your kindly interest in their social welfare should never be forgotten by these young people with whom you came in contact.
Your interest in any work for the betterment of the community, your integrity in all your dealings, and your unselfish life have won for you, during your brief stay, the respect and good will of your neighbors, and we assure you that your sowers in our midst will not soon be forgotten.
But we, the members and adherents of the United Presbyterian Church, feel that we cannot let you go without something more than words to express our love and esteem for you. There fore we would ask you to accept this gift, not for its intrinsic value, not for any pleasure it may bring to you, but as a slight token of remembrance and appreciation for all you have been and done for us as pastor of our congregation, and we trust as you go to your new field of labor that God's richest blessing will go with you and with your family, and as you go forward in His service you will be greatly strengthened for the work whereunto He hath called you.
Signed on behalf of the congregation,
C. E. Scott,
Wm. S. Chisholm,
Wm. Stark.

CRERER AND DRURY Speak at Milton

There was a tremendous turnout on Tuesday afternoon at last week to hear Mr. Crerer, the Progressive leader, and Premier Drury speak in Milton in support of Mr. Ford, the farmers' candidate for Halton. The arrangement had been for a meeting at the town hall, but the Princess Theatre was also engaged, and both were crowded. There were many Liberals and Conservatives as well as Progressives. The chairman were, N. Wrigglesworth, at the town hall, and John Deering at the theatre. The speeches at each did not differ materially. Mr. Ford spoke briefly. He denied the existence of any compact with the Liberals. He added that the present campaign would be fought out on the basis of the issues at stake, at any rate as far as he was concerned.
Mr. Crerer devoted himself largely to the grain enquiry, a subject with which Mr. Meighen had dealt at some length when he spoke in Milton on Oct. 29th. He explained the organization of the United Grain Growers, pointing out that though each of the 36,000 co-operative shareholders was restricted to 100 shares of stock, the U. G. G. had a total turnover of more than $100,000,000. It was out of this that Mr. Crerer stated, as had been stated, he had been made wealthy by the United Grain Growers' organization. He said his dividends last year were $12. In regard to the charge that the grain growers had taken 40,000 bushels of grain from the C.P.R., Mr. Crerer referred to a letter from the C.P.R. which said that after investigation it was satisfied there was nothing in the charge. All these issues were brought in to take the people's mind off the big issues, and a Government that stooped to such things was in a bad way.
Mr. Crerer referred again to the success of the cream separator and binder twine industries, which are not protected. He stated that, as agriculture was the greatest Canadian industry, it should be encouraged, and that when it becomes prosperous success must follow to business and other industries in Canada.
Discussing income taxes, Mr. Crerer said, in reply to charges that the farmers did not pay their income taxes, that either they had not the income, or the Department of Finance was lax in its duties.
Mr. Crerer stated that every body should pay his own taxes. In the protective tariff, he said, discussing this issue, the thrum used most commonly were the most highly taxed, thus adding to the burdens of the people and curbing production from the natural resources.
Premier Drury declared that the Progressive policy of today was not as radical as the Liberal policy of 1896. "They didn't carry out that platform, but the progressives will. It is not a platform to get in on with us, but a platform to put into effect when we do get there." Mr. Drury also indulged in a little political prophecy. He didn't think that any group would be big enough to govern itself. The Progressive party would be united, but the Liberal party would be split up, with the high protection element headed at Montreal joining up with the Conservatives, and the lower tariff Liberals, some of whom would come from Quebec, would join the Progressives.
Mr. Drury's forecast that after the elections there will be a Liberal party left in the House, is greatly resented by Halton Liberals, who make another forecast—that the Progressive candidate will suffer for it at the polls.—Champion.
