Big Yield of Clover

A remarkable yield of red clover was recently "rushed on the farm" of J. W. Wilson, lot 11, 7th St. From seven acres, 374 bushels were thrashed making an average of over five tons per acre. This was thrashed by Mr. Ed. Bridgen & Sons who are having a busy season thrashing in the neighborhood and doing good work.

Travelling Motion Pictures
 The Mission Pictures and Travelling of Japan, China and Korea have been well patronized. Tonight, Wednesday, will be the last night. Let us fill the hall and see what splendid work is being accomplished by the Presbyterian Missionary Society in these lands of the Orient. The travelling of beautiful and interesting pictures will follow the motion pictures. All up at 8.15.

G.W.V.A. Concert
 The third of the series of high class entertainments being given by the G.W.V.A. will be held in the town hall, next Tuesday evening, December 20th, when a splendid program will be given by "Patricia Trio." It is hoped our citizens will show their appreciation of the boys' effort to provide good, clean, high-class entertainments by being present and inviting their friends next Tuesday evening.

Garage Burned
 There was a costly fire at Burlington last week. The Chevrolet garage, owned by J. R. McKee, was destroyed, with its contents, fifteen cars, machinery and appliances. The fire spread so quickly that nothing could be saved. Its cause was accidental. As Mr. McKee was bringing in a car, a door swung against it, his foot slipped off the clutch. The car shot forward, struck the wall and an explosion followed.

Family Sadly Bereaved
 The family of Gilbert Sinclair, lot 23, Esquimaux, have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in the sudden and sad death of two of the daughters of the family. On Saturday, Bessie Sinclair, beloved wife of Mr. W. H. Sinclair, of Green Sound, died suddenly after an operation, and on Sunday, the 4th inst., Sarah Sinclair, beloved wife of Mr. Benjamin Bear, of Allandale, died very suddenly after having undergone an operation. The members of the families and friends are sorrow stricken in the sudden demise of two of the family.

Murray Crawford Dead
 Murray Crawford, a prominent member of Haldon county, died at his home in Campbellville last Friday night. He was born in Haldon county 62 years ago, and had lived in this district all his life. He had been ill about a month. Forty years ago Mr. Crawford entered the lumber business. Recently when his business was incorporated under the name Murray Crawford Limited, he became President. Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons—Edgar H., Swanson, E. C., and Lloyd and Hart at home—and two daughters—Mrs. (Major) J. Mahon and Mrs. E. Mahon, Campbellville.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 7, Maitland C. Besley, excise officer, arrived here with two assistants and made a raid on the house of Fred Morley in the east ward where they found a distilling outfit, consisting of a copper worm, an ordinary copper boiler and a lead pail, capacity about five gallons, to hold cold water, and the den in different places. There was no mash. Morley and his still were taken to jail at about 8.35. This morning he was brought before Police Magistrate Dice, charged under the Beverage Act, with having in his possession a still. He pleaded guilty and was fined $400, with $85 costs. He settled almost immediately and was released.—Champion.

Red and Green
 The Christmas issue of Red and Green in Canada is particularly attractive and is replete with many stories which will appeal to the heart of the true sportsman. Alton H. Kerr's "Hunt-hunting on the Kenogami and Hemogami" as the opening article will prove a realistic tale, while the ever popular F. V. Williams' and Bonny Castle Dale narratives are of the usual high standard. The article by A. F. Wallace entitled "Olan and Pearl Fish" will undoubtedly be of vivid interest as well as instructive. Gines Ammann's "Ten Along the Trap-line and Fishing Notes" contain several articles valuable to the various readers. Red and Green in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.
