Unveiling and Dedication Service

During the singing of this hymn, His Honour, with the Bishop, Clergy and Churchwardens will group themselves before the Memorial Windows. The Churchwardens will then address His Honour, Honourable Sir, we, the Churchwardens of St George's Church, Georgetown, request you to unveil these Windows; and you, Reverend Sirs, to dedicate the same, as a memorial to those members of this Congregation who gave their lives in the Great War of 1914-1918. Bishop-In the name of the Pather, and of the Son.

and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. Minister-The Lord be with you. Answer-And with thy Spirit.

Let us pray. Minister-Lord have mercy upon us. Answer-Christ have mercy upon us. Minister-Lord have mercy upon us.

Our Father, which art in Heaven, etc. Minister-Prevent us; O Lord, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally by Thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Hymn No. 220. After the Hymn His Honour will unveil the Windows, saying these words:

We unveil these Windows: "To the glory of God and in honoured memory of the men of this congregation, who during the Great War of 1914-1918, gave their lives for God; for King and Country; for loved ones, home and Empire; for the cause of Justice, Liberty and Freedom."

Bishop-We dedicate these Windows to the glory of God, desiring that they shall for ever beautify this Church, and stand here as a memorial of those whom Thou hast called to that higher sphere beyond our ken; and may ever imprint on our consciousness those eternal principles for which they gave their lives in sacrifice.

Let us pray. Bishop-Almighty God, we commend to Thy loving kindness, Thy servants, who gave their lives to defend us. Accept, O Lord, the offering of their self-sacrifire, and grant that we with them may find a place of refreshment and peace where the light of Thy countenance shines for ever, and where all tears are wiped away, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, that all who in the years to come shall look upon these windows may learn their lesson of courage and devotion, and from a life of faithful service ou carth may pass to the glad service of the life immortal; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

O Almighty God, Who hast knit together Thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of Thy Son Christ our Lord; grant us grace so to follow Thy bleesed Saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which Thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love Thee; through Jeuns Christ our Lord. Amen.
