 Silver Wedding
 —The twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Green, was celebrated at their home on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week. Friday evening was largely given over to the young people, a goodly number of whom met to express their good will and offer their congratulations to their host and hostess at having successfully completed the first quarter century of married life. Saturday evening was in the possession of those of more mature years, some of whom were present at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Green, twenty-five years ago. Both evenings were spent in pleasant social intercourse and games, after which refreshments were served. The guests then departed, but not before expressing the wish that Mr. and Mrs. Green might both be permitted to celebrate many more anniversaries of their wedding day.
 Shamrock Tea
 —One of the most pleasant events of the season was the Shamrock Tea held in the auditorium of the Public Library, under the auspices of the Women's Civic Association last Saturday afternoon. The spacious room was prettily decorated with Shamrocks, ferns and flowers, while the young girls who served refreshments and the ladies of the committee, of which Mrs. H. B. Henderson was the convener, wore pretty costumes of green and white. On the centre table among the other decorations was a handsome Irish harp, made and donated by Mr. Oliver McKay. At this table, Mrs. Roe, the president of the Society, secured tea during the serving of a dainty and delicious luncheon. At intervals during the afternoon the proceedings were enlivened by vocal and instrumental numbers rendered by the following local talent, viz:—Mrs. W. I. Davidson, Mrs. Henderson, Miss Josephine Wilson, Miss Helen Henderson, Mr. E. Cole and Mr. Jack Thompson. Miss V. Cotton was a charming Irish Colleen in her suit of white and green and presented each guest with a pretty green carnation. Mr. Norman Henderson, who attended the door, made a typical representative of the Emerald Isle in his suit of green. The home-made baking was much in demand and the booth handling choice staple varieties in this line was sold out long before the afternoon programme was concluded. The receipts amounted to $75.00.
 —The best remedy known for Asthma is RAZ-MAH, for Rheumatism, etc., is T. R. O. Both are sold and guaranteed by reliable druggists everywhere. Ask D. J. Matthew.
