

DON'T LOOK FOR FLAWS
Don't look for flaws as you go through life.
And even when you find them it is wise and kind to be somewhat blind.
And look for the virtue behind them.
For the blindest might have a hint of the light.
Somewhere in its shadowy hiding it is better far to hunt for a star than the spots on the sun itself.
The current of life runs every way to the bosom of God's great orb.
Don't set your face against the river's course.
And think to alter its motion.
Don't waste a course on the universe.
Remember it lived before you.
Don't butt at the storm with your puny form.
But bend and let it fly over you.
The world will never adjust itself to suit your whim to the letter.
Some things must go wrong your whole life long.
And the sooner you know it the better.
It is only to fight with the Infinite and go under at last in the wreath.
The wisest man shapes into God's plan.
As the water shapes into the vessel.

Church Union at Grayhaven's
The union of the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches in Grayhaven is practically accomplished. Last December it was decided to try the amalgamation by having union meetings in the one church throughout the winter. Rev. A. A. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church and Rev. W. A. Morrison, pastor of the Methodist church, are both strong union men, and report successful co-operation. A meeting is being arranged at which the co-operative superintendents of these churches will meet with the separate and united congregations and effect plans for the final consummation of the union.

It is said that there are few nightmares so horrible as that of the lady who dreamed that she went to a ball in her night-gown and found herself shockingly over-dressed.

"I did something to-day that, I'm ashamed to say, I have never done before," said a well-known business man—"I called my Mother on Long Distance. By Jove, she was glad to hear my voice."
"What with business, worry and responsibilities I've been neglecting her for years, and it took a load off my shoulders just to hear her happy, tremulous voice say "God bless you, son, for calling me up!"
But what about you and the mother who sits in the far away silence, perhaps hungering for a word from the son she loves?
Call her by Long Distance to-night and bring gladness to her homesome heart. Let her listen again to the voice she knows so well, and it will repay you a thousand-fold to hear her say "God bless you, son, for calling me up!"
