The Canadian Club

The Canadian Club of New York is the centre of activity for Canadiana living in New York and vicinity.

The Club is constantly in receipt of calls for relief for Veterans Canadian Soldiers and other needy Canadians in New York. All worthy cases are being promptly cared for.

For instance, a few days ago a young Canadian girl from Nova Scotia, penniless and without friends in New York, was found dead in a rooming house, having died from asphyxiation. The Canadian Club took charge of the body, gave her a respectable funeral at which several of the members attended.

We are endeavoring to get in contact with Canadians in New York and request that those having relatives or friends living in New York City and vicinity, also New Jersey, communicate their names and addresses to the undersigned in order that they may be invited to enjoy the privileges and advantages which the Club affords.

Address: Thomas D. Neillands, Chairman, Special Committee, The Canadian Club of New York, Parkside Sq. and 42d Street, New York City.

"I ACCEPT"

I shall go out as all men go. Spent fickers in a mighty wind. Then I shall know, as all must know.

What lies the great grey veil behind.

There may be nothing but a deep And timeless void without a name. Where no sun lings, no dead stars sleep.

And there is neither night nor day. There may be meadows there and hills. Mountains and plains and winds that blow.

And flowers budding over rills. Springing from an eternal snow. There may be oceans white with foam.

And great tall ships for hungry Who, called out little salt seas home. And burn to launch their keels again.

There may be voices I have known. Cool fingers that have touched my hair. There may be hearts that warm my own.

Love may abide forever there. Who knows? Who needs to understand? If there be shadows there, or more.

To live as though a pleasant land Lay just beyond an open door?

Terra Cotta

A jolly time was spent at the home of Mr. Peter Dick, on Monday evening, March 8th, when the Terra Cotta Farmers' Club, numbering about fifty, enjoyed a fine program and social time.

The usual club business was followed by a debate. "Resolved that the farmer's wife has fewer opportunities to enjoy life than the farmer." Affirmative, Mrs. W. A. Lyons and Mrs. Bert Taylor; negative, Mr. Andrew McDonald and Mr. James McKane. In spite of the fact that the ladies had the last word—the men as usual were overruled with superior ability, as the judges, Mrs. J. L. Clark, Miss Maude Gross, Mrs. and Mr. Clarence Anderson gave a decision in favor of the negative. Miss Sutherland, as critic, soothed the ladies' feelings by giving them first place in oratory.

Response to the roll call was in the form of a short Irish story from each member. The most delightful part of the program was the quartet solo by Miss Norma Thompson, community singing and exquisite piano solos by the highly gifted Miss Elizabeth Watkins. After lunch the rest of the evening was devoted to progressive encores and at the close the winners, Mrs. John Lyons and Mr. W. Sharp, were presented with flowers by the hostess.

Such a fine community spirit prevailed among those present that when the time came to part many were heard to pronounce this one of our best meetings and the unanimous opinion was that Mr. and Mrs. Dick had afforded royal hospitality.

Provincial Fellows for Palmerston—Under new arrangements of the Provincial Police Department, Palmerston is to be headquarters for the officer acting in Wellington County, and last week Provincial officer P. Melville arrived in town to take up his duties. Mr. Melville's work throughout the county will be confined to criminal cases. Each county will have a provincial officer and only when called upon will they work outside their own county. Mr. Melville is an officer with considerable experience in criminal cases. He is a returned soldier, who saw service in France until the signing of the armistice—Palmerston Spectator.

Notes and Comments

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT has sent inspectors to look over gravel pits and have issued regulations for owners to carry out. For instance, every gravel pit owner must see that there is no overhanging sections of earth, which might fall without warning, and no excavating is to be done which might be dangerous.

FRENCH DRAFTY has assumed considerable responsibility for trying to reorganize the public with regard to that "wino, woman and boob" in the Legislature by the vote at least of declaring his intention that "the honor of the Minister of the Crown has been brought in a way that would merit any criticism." So far so good. But the Premier would do well to make a public statement with reference to just who were involved, what they were up to, and why, and the heavy time referred to was something in keeping with the decorum expected of the country's legislators. Then it will be possible to make certain that if there was drinking there is no drinking going on in Ontario's Legislature.

COMMENTS ON THE decreased population in a number of towns and villages, shown by the Dominion Census, The Toronto Telegram points out that many people who leave the towns for the cities find that "all is not gold that glitters" regarding their new conditions.

"Many of the families which were in the cities, say, 'I would be happier, and in the main, better off, were they to remain in the small towns which they seem to be so anxious to leave behind. City wages may be weighed with city expenses. City advantages must be weighed with city disadvantages. The artificial life offered by the large centres of population is a lure to many. But the spaciousness, the out-of-door life, the neighborliness, the simple pleasures and the community interests of the small towns are worth something after all. Depopulation of these centres is not a disaster of a doomsday nature." Most of the people who have remained in the small towns, whether in business enterprises, or as working people, are immeasurably better off so far as the real comforts, and the spirit of friendliness and mutual helpfulness are concerned, than those who left the home town for the city's attractions.

Acton

Mr. and Mrs. W. Workan, Mr. W. Walker, Mr. A. Brown and Mrs. Oliver Cook attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Jackson at Toronto on Saturday.

Mr. W. R. Kennedy, who was operated on recently for appendicitis, at St. George's Hospital, returned home on Saturday. He will soon be quite himself again.

Misses Knapp, Bennett, Palmer, Henry and Armstrong of Acton School staff and Miss McDonald of Lorne School, intend accompanying the Toronto Teachers' Association on their tour to New York and Washington.

Mr. H. P. Moore, who has been confined to the house with influenza, is slowly recovering but is still very lame.

Mr. B. J. Kerr, another, has been confined to the house the past week with a severe cold and sore throat.

Erin

Mr. Cyril Bihler, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bihler, 7th line, has been chased a butcher business in Georgetown from Mr. Evans. We wish him success in his venture.

Citizens were shocked on Tuesday morning when they learned of the sudden death of Mr. Albert Brown, of Brimstone. Mr. Brown had been about as usual and when preparing to retire for the night was suddenly stricken with heart failure and died before medical aid could be summoned.

At a recent quarterly board meeting of the Methodist Church, a unanimous invitation was extended to the Rev. J. A. Evans, pastor of the Church, to continue his pastorate for another term. Rev. Evans cheerfully accepted the invitation.

Milton

The anniversary concert of Terra Cotta Methodist church will be held on Thursday, March 16th.

While in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, it invariably nowadays turns to the thought about a spring overcoat.

Predictions are made of an early spring, but it takes the man of the house, coming in with his muddy boots, to exhibit real evidence of the movement of real estate.

A Tea under the auspices of the Women's Civic Association will be given in the Public Library in aid of the Library fund, on Saturday, March 18th, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

If there is any chance of convivial parties in Ontario's Legislature halls being cancelled hereafter the number of legislative assemblies held in Ontario in the next election.

How to Have Beautiful Walls

The most economical and satisfactory way is to paint them with Mellotone—a fast wall paint made by Lowe Brothers.

Mellotone is easily applied with a brush. Dries quickly with that soft, dull "velvet" finish that is so desirable.

Using it, you can have a different color scheme in every room, yet all will be in perfect harmony.

Mellotone colors are as soft as the tints of the rainbow.

Simply cleaned with soap and water.

Come in and see the Mellotone panels and ask for literature.
