"Use the Bell to Sell"
Have a Big Store in a Small Town
THERE are such stores, that hold the trade for miles around, some of them built up without largely increasing capital.
The merchant buys small standardized stocks of the very best sellers, the same styles that are being shown in the big cities. He is particular to get the styles that are advertised, that his customers will look for. If it is wearing apparel, he probably does not carry the very small or very large sizes, preferring those for which there will be most demand.
When well displayed, an advertisement in the local paper starts them selling. The merchant looks upon the manufacturer or jobber as his warehouse. Once a week, or oftener, he checks up what new stock or odd sizes he needs, and orders them by Long Distance.
Shipment is often made the same day by express, parcel post, or freight. Quick delivery becomes possible. Customers are enthusiastic to find they can buy what they want in their home town. Reputation grows rapidly, and the yearly turnover increases notably.
By designating an experienced employee to handle out-of-town messages, their customers' calls are made at the low Station-to-Station rates.

A WORD

A word, a stinging word, that' cut
Like sharp and poisoned dart,
A word, that struck with stubbing pain,
Into a trusting heart,
Fell from the lips of friend one day,
As swift as bird a-wing,
I wondered if the one that spoke
Felt nothing of the sting.

Another word I hgard that day,
A word of hope and love,
That fell on a discouraged heart
Like blessing from above;
I knew that he, who spoke the word
To soothe the soul in in pain,
Would feel the kindling fires of love
Warming his heart again.

I heard again a cruel word,
From thoughtless lips one day,
A word that ruined a young life,
And hurled its joys away—
A life-so full of hope and pride
Blasted by slanders breath,
In which all hope and faith had died
A life that longed for death.

Another word, a tender word,
To soul deep dyed in sin,
That all his depth of being stirred,
That love might enter in,
It raised a heart from deep despair
In danger's direful hour,
The star of hope that glimmered there
Revealed its migety power.

A word is such a wondrous thing,
Though oft, 'tis said to tell,
We fling them fast with cruel sting
To hearts we love so well;
But words that wound and words that heal,
And words we idly say—
Of these God asks a true account
When life has passed away.

5000 Facts about Canada

The 1922 edition of the popular little Cyclopedia of the Dominion "5000 Facts about Canada" will be warmly welcomed by the public, which regards it as an indispensable booklet, "as full of meat as a cocoanut," as one wittily expressed it. Its compiler, Frank Yeigh, is widely known as an authority on everything Canadian, and it is a marvel and model of condensation, with a fact in a sentence. The new issue is enlarged and improved, and its contents will prove a revelation of the new growth of the country, not only in a single year, but in a five or ten-year period. Over 50 chapters ranging alphabetically from Agriculture to Yukon—provide a bird's eye view of the Dominion from every angle. No better advertisement of the country could be had, and many use it in that way to enlighten the ignorant as to the wealth, prosperity and advantage of this Britain of the West. Copies may be had from leading newsdealers or by sending 30 cents to the Canadian Facts Pub. Co., 588 Huron St., Toronto.

—Two good reliable remedies which guarantee results are RAZ-MAH for Asthma and Bronchitis, and T. R. Cs for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, etc., are sold by D. J. Matthew.

Local Council of Women

Everyone is invited to hear Mrs. C. H. Becker on the live question of "The Movies" at the Library Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Becker will be at the Library at 3.30 so that all who wish may meet her and ask any question they wish on the subject. Her address will begin at 4 o'clock. A nominal fee of 15c is asked for to cover expenses.

Ladies, have you forgotten that second-hand clothing you thought of sending to the Library for distribution? Mothers whose husbands have been out of work most of the winter are asking for it to make over for their families. Now is the time to act. Anything that can be used is acceptable.

Women's Auxiliary

The 29th annual meeting of the W. A. of St. George's church was held in the schoolroom on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 21st, the rector, Rev. Mr. Mayes, presiding. One of the most successful years of the Women's Auxiliary was outlined in the reports presented. Hearty appreciation was extended to the officers and members by the Rector for the splendid work accomplished. Officers for the ensuing year were re-elected as follows:—Honorary president, Mrs. Mayes; president, Mrs. Beaumont; 1st vice president, Mrs. John Price; 2nd vice president, Mrs. J. D. Masten; secretary, Mrs. Roe; treasurer, Mrs. Elmer Thompson; Superintendent Junior Branch, Mrs. Grant; assistant, Mrs. Corke; Superintendent Babies' Branch, Mrs. Sleightholme; assistant, Mrs. Castell; Treasurer E. C. D. Fund, Mrs. Hamilton; Treasurer thank offering fund, Mrs. Norman Speight; Rector's representative, Mrs. Kirk; choir matron, Mrs. Knight, visiting committee, Mrs. Castell, Mrs. Annandale, Mrs. Corke. An interesting and very special feature of the meeting was the presenting of a life membership certificate to Mrs. Castell, a beloved and honored member of the W. A. The presentation was made by the President, Mrs. Beaumont. Tea was then served. Mrs. Creighton, Mrs. Annandale, Mrs. Frances, Mrs. Corke and Mrs. Sleightholme were the hostesses.

Obituary

JOHN F. BROWN

After many long months of suffering, death came to John F. Brown, a highly respected farmer of the 9th line, Esquesing, on Monday afternoon of last week. Mr. Brown was born in Scotland, 80 years ago, and came as a youth to Downie township, where he resided with his parents near St. Marys. For the past forty years he has been living near Norval. His wife, Miss Sarah Mountain, of Cheltenham, died five years ago, and his only son passed away two years ago. The only surviving member of his family is his daughter, Jennie, who lived with and cared for her father. Mr Brown was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was a supporter of the Liberal party. The funeral took place on Wednesday to Norval cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Walter Patterson.

Acton

Messrs Chester and Lewis Laird and Misses Ruby and Violet Laird of Georgetown, visited at the home of their aunt, Mrs. E. Huffman, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie of Georgetown, attended the anniversary services at Knox Church on Sunday.

For the past three weeks the big G.T.R. tank at the station has been supplied from the town waterworks system.

While returning last week from his visit to Vancouver, B.C., Reeve Barber was taken somewhat seriously ill on the train. He got as far as Detroit and there was removed to a hospital where he is progressing rapidly toward recovery.—Free Press.

Milton

About thirty Epworth Leaguers motored to Georgetown Monday evening and spent a very pleasant and enjoyable time with the young people of the Methodist Church there. The program was given by the visitors, while the refreshments were served by the locals.

D. W. Campbell of Moosejaw, is spending a few days here with his sisters, the Misses Campbell, Victoria Ave.

Mr. M. E. Nixon has sold his fine brick residence on Mary street to Mr. W. Atkinson, grocer.

The combined election expenses of the three candidates who contested Halton County in the last Federal election on December 6th, totaled $2,888.86, distributed as follows: Dr. R. K. Anderson, M.P., Milton, Conservative, $888.44; W. F. W. Fisher, Burlington, Liberal, $941.25; John F. Ford, Trafalgar Township, Progressive, $611.17.—Reformer.

—Why pay more? 2 in 1 or Nugget polish, any color, 10c a tin. H. J. Fox, Georgetown.

Notes and Comments

THE FACT THAT Great Britain is preparing to pay 25,000,000 pounds on her war debt to the United States will be a surprise to a number of Americans who have been led to believe that the war had practically ruined John Bull. The financial recuperative powers of the Motherland has long been demonstrated in a remarkable degree.

THE PROVINCIAL Liberals have selected Mr. Wellington Hay as permanent leader of the party in this Province. Whether he will prove to be progressive remains for the future to decide. Mr. Hay is popular and held in high respect and in a position where a doctor is required as much as anything his future course will be one to watch with interest.

THE ONTARIO Legislature has declared for lower freight rates, and in this attitude it will have the support of business interests generally. Railways, however, have to make ends meet as well as others, and possibly this may act as a deterent to the suggested reductions, the welcome of which is beyond peradventure. Some people argue that deficits might be better than stagnation, and there is certainly something in that.

ONE OF THE latest developments of the modern dance, and one which is the cause of much concern to serious moralists, is the "parking" of cheeks. The New York civic league has laid down the law that cheeks should be kept four inches apart. Perhaps the next step will be the invention of some kind of head-gear to enforce the four-inch limit. The people who feel their responsibility for the welfare of humanity are certainly having their own troubles.

ONE OF THE GREAT events in the religious history of North America was the Day of Prayer for Missions observed last Friday by millions of Protestant women all over Canada and the United States. To every hamlet, village, town and city in these countries—to wherever two or three might be gathered together—the call to prayer had gone forth, and as a result thousands of meetings were at the same time in progress and earnest intercession was made for world evangelization and for the granting of every human need. And those Georgetown citizens who knew nothing about it and consequently did not add their prayers to those who assembled in St. George's church, should join in praying that within the next month or two employment will be general throughout our fair Dominion and the full dinner pail will be in evidence again.

Halton Annual Seed Fair

The sixth annual seed fair for the County of Halton, under the auspices of Halton Agricultural Society, and the Final Live Stock Judging Contest under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture and Halton Farmers' Club, will be held at the Royal Building, Milton on Friday, March 10th. Sheep and dairy cattle will be judged at 10 a.m., and horses, beef cattle and hogs at 1 p.m.

Puslinch Farmer Killed

An unfortunate fatality occurred last week when Mr. Robert Evans, a well-known Puslinch farmer, was killed as the result of a tree falling on him. He was engaged in cutting a tree down near his home about 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and although he was not killed instantly his death occurred a few hours later. Mrs. Oswald Gorby, Guelph, is a sister of Mr. Evans.

Many Candidates Lost Deposits

One hundred and ninety-two candidates in the Federal election lost their $200 deposits, which means that in the 235 constituencies, 192 failed to obtain half the number of votes secured by the winner. Of the losers, 70 were Conservatives, 47 Progressives, 43 Independents, 32 Liberals. By provinces, 72 lost in Quebec, 36 in Ontario, 21 in Saskatchewan, 19 in Alberta, 17 in Manitoba, 8 in Nova Scotia, 7 in New Brunswick, 7 in British Columbia, 4 in Prince Edward Island, and 1 in the Yukon.

Rod and Gun

If you have gone over your fishing tackle and have everything in readiness for the opening day, turn to the March issue of Rod and Gun in Canada and heap fuel on the fire kindled by the Red Gods by reading "Nagogami Beauties" by L. F. Steenman; "A Speckled Trout Puzzle," by Bonnycastle Dale and "Fishing the Cowichan River From a Canoe," by John P. Babcock. If you are not a fisherman, read any one of the hunting and trapping stories and articles contained in the March issue of Canada's National sportsman's monthly. The rifleman interested in the Lee-Enfield will find some very helpful information, while the "scattergun" enthusiast will read with interest the trap department. This number of Rod and Gun in Canada has several good nature photographs which will undoubtedly prove of interest to all worshippers at Nature's shrine. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.
