Obituary
Another respected citizen of our town passed away at Gospel Hospital last week in the person of Mr. W. G. Fare, who underwent an operation for appendicitis but succumbed to the shock. Deceased was born in Norwich, England in 1874, and came to Canada in 1904. After residing a few months in Brampton he came to Georgetown where he has since resided. He was married and leaves a family of four daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and kind and loving father, viz: Mrs. Burrows of Brampton; Mrs. W. H. McDonald of Simcoe; Beatrice, of St. George's, and Alwyn W. of this city. A sister, Mrs. John Appleby, of Stewartstown, and two brothers, John M. of Orton, Ontario, and W. J. Fleming, of Chicago, also survive.

Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cummings were presented with a beautiful casserole and military brushes. The address was read by Mrs. A. W. Allen. Mr. Cummings on behalf of himself and wife thanked the givers. Mr. Allen gave a speech on "Comradeship," also a speech by Mr. Dan Reid, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cummings and others present were entertained to a dainty lunch given by the Ladies Aid. A most pleasant evening was spent by all. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings received this for their faithful services to the church, especially in the music line.

Correspondence
DEAR SIR—May I express through your paper my very hearty thanks to all my friends in town who so promptly went to the assistance of Mr. Hazelwood last week during the storm. I appreciate the assistance rendered but in many cases I did not have an opportunity of thanking you personally and I trust you will accept this as such an expression.

MEMORIAL CHIMES
VIBRATE FOR THE FIRST TIME ON EASTER SUNDAY AT KNOX CHURCH.

It was a beautiful Easter morning, quite hazy, the occasion when to the accompaniment of the sweet clear tones of the new chimes vibrating for the first time, services were held in Knox Church last Sunday commemorating the installation and dedication of the new curillon of eight bells, the gift of Mable Grant Lawson as a memorial to her husband, Henry Pratt Lawson.

It was in Holy, Holy, Holy, that the chimes were first heard promptly at 10:45, followed by "Best are the Pure in Heart," "Jesus Shall Reign," and "Oh for a Thousand Tongues," played by Mr. Charles P. White, carillonist of Toronto, who also played a number of other tunes during the afternoon and before the evening service.

The morning service the church was filled to the doors when Rev. Dr. Wallace of Toronto delivered an eloquent and very appropriate address. After the reading of the scripture, Psalm 84 and Acts 2:14-47, the speaker chose as his text the 1st verse of the 122nd Psalm, viz: "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

In his opening remarks Dr. Wallace expressed his great pleasure at again being privileged to visit the congregation of Knox church, and thanked pastor and people for their kind invitation to him to assist at this memorial service.

He said in part: "There was a time when there were no church bells and the history of church bells is quite interesting from the lone bell to the inauguration of the chimes which ring out sweet music to call the people to worship in God's house. Bell towers are always places of special interest and are specially protected, so strong is the interest in the church of God. To melt an honor and a privilege to dedicate these chimes and share with old friends and new ones the memorial to a good man whom it was an honor to know and have as a friend, and whose generosity, liberality and Christian spirit has left an impress on the community. The late Mr. Lawson was not a man of many words, but his just and generous deeds, fair dealing and thoughtfulness for others will remain long in memory. He loved the church and manifested it in many ways without number.

To-day chimes call people to the house of God and prayer throughout the world. In the early days no call was sounded for many Christians had to meet in privacy. It was about the 6th century when church bells were heard in Italy, and a little later in England, but now all over the world church bells continue the call of the early Christians to worship God. Those early disciples set a splendid example in their devotion to the house of God and if we are worthy sons and daughters we should have the highest regard for that early Christian spirit and forsake not the assembling of ourselves together for the praise of God, the proclamation of the gladness of meeting in God's house and the joy of worship. It ought to be joy in your life and mine to be in our Father's house and listen to His voice of courage and hope. How happy we should be. Chimes tell the joy of Christian religion and God wants his children to be happy; but this is not always so in the minds of some men. It is said the lack of joy in Robert Ingersoll's puritan father helped make Robert an infidel. Some people are so stern they are poor examples of Christians. God wants joy and gladness in us all. When we get down-hearted and lose joy we should pray for its return. Elijah was a courageous and strong man but for a moment he looked at circumstances and fell into despair, just as everyone else will do if they look at circumstances; but joy remains a characteristic of Christ's people. Put joy into your griefs. All love a happy man. Supply the Christians cup should be running over with joy. Chimes ring out with gladness to-day because of Easter. He who was crowned with thorns now wears a crown of glory and the power of sin is broken. Christ lives and is a remembrance beside us at all times through life, in all our perplexities and hours of perplexity and sorrow our Divine redeemer and friend speaks words of courage, comfort and joy, calling us to His Father's house where we shall listen to the sweet music of those Heavenly chimes throughout all eternity."

At the conclusion of the sermon the presentation of the beautiful Memorial Chimes was made by Mr. L. Grant, father of the donor in the following words:

To Rev. R. F. Cameron, Minister of Knox Church.

Towns above 2,000
Want School Grant

Initiative Taken by Board of Georgetown Premier Drury's Riding

The Toronto Star of Monday evening has the following: "Ontario school centres of 2,000 population and more are in session at the Prime George to take action against what is said to be an 'undue distribution of supplementary school grants.'"

"In writing to public school boards of the '2,000 and over' class, Chairman J. B. Mackenzie of the Georgetown board, made this statement: 'Under the latest order in effect applicable schools in towns or cities of 2,000 or over do not participate in the supplementary grants. This grant to rural schools and centres of less than 2,000 amounts to from $100 to $200 a year. This province money, of course, is collected from the province as a whole.'"

When Mr. Mackenzie opened to-day's organization meeting, he had forty replies in his hand, and the attendance of actual representatives was sufficient for discussion.

Representatives were present from Burlington, Eastview, Whitby, Uxbridge, St. Thomas, Lindsay, Brantford, Simcoe, Orangeville, Sandwich, Collingwood, Campbellford, Theodor and Georgetown, represented by Mr. S. Kirk.

Hinton is Premier Drury's own constituency, and last year the Georgetown board corresponded with its premier member. Mr. Drury referred the matter to the department. Then, when Georgetown drew attention to the fact that Acton was receiving a grant that was denied to Georgetown, the latter was informed, according to Mr. Mackenzie, that the 1,600 limit had been extended to 2,000.

On the suggestion of E. C. Fenner, Brantford, seconded by W. D. Baines, St. Thomas, it was decided to form an interurban trustees' association to co-operate with the present urban trustees' association with the object of getting fair treatment and equitable distribution of supplementary grants.

The following executive was appointed:—E. C. Kilmer, Brantford, chairman; Ernest W. White, St. Marys, secretary-treasurer; Dr. McGilvray, Whitby; A. W. Baines, St. Thomas; J. B. Mackenzie, Georgetown; E. T. Coldrey, Ottawa; D. A. Fisher, Lindsay; and W. D. McClelland, Harrison. It was stated that propaganda work would be undertaken, and after the collection of data the legislature would be attacked.
