Obituary
ROBERT LOGAN
The death of Robert Logan, an old and respected resident of Esquimaux, at the age of 85 years, occurred at his home near Glenwilliams on April 18th, 1922. The funeral services were held in the Glenwilliams Methodist Church, from which the remains were taken to the village cemetery, and interred on Thursday afternoon, April 20th, 1922.

The immediate family who survive him are his wife, Mrs. Eliza Logan, and four sons, Henry, Hugh, William and Wellington. Mr. Logan was always an energetic, hard working man and a valuable citizen. He believed in his God and committed himself to Him. From early manhood until the end of his life he was a member of the Methodist church. He passed into eternity with unwavering faith in the mercy and love of his God.

Glenwilliams

The True Blue Lodge entertained the members of L. O. L. 346, also True Blues and Orangemen of Georgetown, to a social in the town hall last Friday evening. It was a most enjoyable evening was spent in games and dancing. Music was supplied by Messrs. Dolph McKinley and Jack Thompson.

Mr. Henry Logan of Minneapolis, is spending a few days with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Georgetown, visited Mr. Charles Forster on Sunday.

The alterations and repairs to the dressing room and stage in our town hall, executed by Mr. Alex Murray, make a decided improvement. We are looking forward to a new floor in the near future.

Will Allen jr., who has been quite ill is improving nicely. Harold Wheeler who has also been ill for some time is improving.

A social evening will be held in the town hall on Friday, 28th. Proceeds in aid of our lacrosse team.

The Ladies Guild of St. Alban's Church will hold a sale of work on Thursday April 27th, tomorrow, commencing at 3:30 o'clock.

The approach of the first of May reminds us that once upon a time there was a fisherman who never overestimated the size of the fish that got away. But they say he has been dead a long time. Which again reminds us of that touching ship penned by some unbeliever: "Are fishermen all liars, or do only liars fish?"

The way I have always handled the shoe business is to buy the best boots money can buy and then cut the price so low that no one else can handle them. I have added to my stock the Dayton Boots that need no resoling. J. Roney the man that is making a name for Georgetown. Women's boots soled and breled $2.00

Card of Thanks
Mrs. Logan and some of the public express their grateful appreciation to the friends and neighbors who so kindly came to them with sympathy and generous help during the sickness and death of her husband and father.

Card of Thanks
We hereby convey our sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses and sympathy extended to us in our recent sad bereavement caused by the death of our beloved husband and father—Mrs. W. G. Fare and Family.

Minstrels Entertain
The annual entertainments given by the Georgetown Minstrels in the town hall last Thursday and Friday evenings were, as usual, a huge success. The hall was filled both evenings, and if one can judge from the remarks of those who were present, on either or both occasions, every body was delighted with the entertainment provided.

The choruses were exceptional in line, and all the solos were well rendered. Master Hoz Hourigan in "Hear dem Bells," made a big hit. Mr. H. S. Hamilton who sang a couple of selections during intermission won the hearts of his audience with "The Old Plaid Shawl."

The Quartette and Quintette were also well received in their numbers and all were repeatedly encored.

The comedians who appeared in two acts of songs and jokes were very funny and cracked numerous jokes which brought forth rounds of applause.

The Orchestra under the able leadership of Mr. H. Meir was a new feature, this year, and their opening selections and accompaniment in the choruses proved a valuable acquisition.

Those who took part were—Endeavour, V. Hourigan, V. A. Smith, R. J. Hynde, W. W. Roe, G. E. Early, C. Cole, Chorus—H. E. Coffen, E. Cole, P. B. Coffen, C. Kennedy, R. H. Thompson, H. R. Minns, A. Horner, W. Day, W. McDonald, A. Thompson, K. McDonald, R. B. Foulis, H. S. Hamilton, W. V. Grant. Pianonists—Master Robert Hourigan and Master Jack Smith. Accompanist—Miss N. Kennedy. Interlocutor—J. M. Moore.

Orchestra—H. G. Meir, conductor; K. Roy Edwards, Ralph Ross, Neil Cummings, W. Diggins, J. Thompson, E. McDonald, Colin McDonald, L. Gill, A. Thurston, Miss J. Leavitt.

The stage scenery was the best in the history of the Minstrels, and was arranged and executed by Messrs. James Hickey sr. and Angus Duncan.

Before the closing number of the show, Miss Nellie Kennedy was presented with a Camera and bouquet of flowers, and Miss Jessie Layton with a Cutax Set and bouquet of flowers by the members of the Minstrels for their very able services as accompanists.

Kind Words for
Chief and Mrs. Jackson

Prior to leaving Dresden where he had been Chief of Police for over ten years Chief Jackson was tendered a farewell presentation and the following address which we copy from the Dresden Times: To John Jackson:

On behalf of the Oddfellows, Bowlers and Firemen, we have met here to-night to say farewell to one of our members who has been with us for a number of years.

While we all regret that you are leaving our midst, we assure you that it is our sincere hope that in your new home you will meet with every success. In leaving you we all feel that we are losing not only a most desirable citizen, but a personal friend, one who has always had the best interests of the town at heart, and was trying to make this a place more worth living in. We are proud of having had you with us and shall always remember the untiring efforts you have always shown in anything you have undertaken, especially in the beautifying of our public places.

We would not ask you to accept these chairs as a small remembrance of the esteem in which Mrs. Jackson and yourself are held by your many friends here. We hope that you both will have many years of good health and prosperity, and while occupying them during your leisure time in the years to come, it will give you pleasure to think of the friends you left behind you here. You may rest assured that any time you can visit us here you will receive a wholesome welcome.

Signed on behalf of the above mentioned: Walter T. Jeffs, T. H. Warner, J. S. Lord.

School of Instruction
There was a large attendance of Oddfellows from Milton, Brampton and Georgetown, at the School of Instruction held in the town hall here on Monday evening. Rev. Walter Cox, Past Grand Master of Toronto, was also present as Grand Lodge representative.

The first degree was exemplified on seven candidates by a picked team from the members of lodges represented.

At the conclusion of the degree work the members of Rebekah Lodge served refreshments. After all had partaken Mr. George Cleave, N. G. of Orion Lodge, Georgetown, introduced Past Grand Master Rev. W. Cox, who gave a splendid address on Odd Fellowship. District Deputy Grand Master H. Hourigan and Past District Deputy Will Logg, also made short speeches, after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Past Grand Master.

Musical and vocal selections were rendered during the evening which proved quite an enjoyable occasion.
