The Oddfellows and Rebekahs will go to Toronto on Thursday evening May 11th.

See Norman Speight's display of electrical goods in the Lane block on Saturday night. It will interest you.

To water users—Lawn services may be paid for now. Kindly pay collector at Hydro Office for service before using hose.

Winter appears to have just about spent its force, though it is not to be expected that it may shed a few crocodile tears over things yet.

It is rumored that the route of the new Provincial Highway has been definitely decided upon and that it will go by way of the seventh line.

A meeting of all those interested in lawn tennis will be held in the Bank of Montreal room on Wednesday, May 10th, at 8 p.m. If you are interested, be present.

The Bank of Hamilton has marked the 50th anniversary of its founding by the issue of $25 bank notes. The local branch, however, has not as yet received any of the issue.

It must have been pretty cold in Allison for last week. The "old" of that village says: "Some dressed chickens were to be seen in the butcher shops Saturday evening."

The Horticultural Society have planted a large number of flowering shrubs on Queen St. boulevards. Would those whose residences they are opposite kindly see that they are watered regularly.

Sir Conan Doyle may be a brilliant man, but he certainly doesn't know as much as an anxious world whether there is any grass cutting or spring house cleaning in the next world.

The citizens of Georgetown are urged not to forget the revival meetings in the Baptist Church beginning Tuesday night. Every true lover of souls is expected to be present as far as possible in prayer and attendance that revival may come to Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sanderson of Hornby, are home again after spending the winter at Lauderdale, Florida, to the great benefit of their health. Mr. Sanderson had a great deal of fine sport, both on the water and on the land. On the way south he bought a carload of bees, 800 colonies, in Georgia. He expects them to reach Hornby next week.

If you want a good reliable pair of boots buy Dayfoot's or McPherson's, all solid leather, guaranteed by the makers and us. They need no further recommending. Repeating while you wait. Women's boots half sold and rubber heels $1.00.—J. Roney, Main St. Georgetown.

Something new. To give our many patrons a change we are trying salmon or halibut cutlets to order. Phone or leave your order early and we will have them ready when called for. Let us cook your meals when spring cleaning; it saves time and worry. A wholesome meal that costs very little.—Georgetown Fish and Chip Cafe.

To Manage Farmers' Sun
John Hamm, for 12 years provincial Parliament reporter for Toronto morning papers, has accepted the post of managing editor of the Farmers' Sun, the U.F.O. official organ, published in Toronto, effective June 1st. Mr. Hamm "covered" the Ontario Legislature in 1910 and 1911 for the Toronto Globe and from that time has done the same work for the Mail and Empire.

Burglaries in Town
A number of our stores on Main street have been visited by thieves on various occasions during the past few months, and considerable quantities of goods taken. Last Friday evening one of our stores on Main street was entered through a front up-stair window, the thieves evidently using a ladder to reach the window. It is about time something was done to put a stop to these burglaries.

Grandfather's Tea
The annual Tea and Shower of groceries and clothing combined with a sale of home-made baking will be held on Saturday, May 6, in the Public Library from 4 to 6 p.m. The Society want, if possible, to raise $100 for the support of an orphan. Any kind of groceries such as cocoa, tea, tinned milk, etc., and clothing for children or adults is required, but no canned fruit as it is difficult to pack.

Farewell to W. T. Davidson
More than one hundred and fifty friends of Mr. W. T. Davidson, the well-known Cheltenham farmer, surprised him in his home last Friday evening and as an evidence of the popularity of the family who have practically lived their entire life in that neighborhood, presented Mr. Davidson with a fitted club bag and a walking cane; his sons, Lewis and Kenneth, with gold watches. The presentation made by J. R. Henderson, H. J. W. Taylor and Frank Petch and the address was read by Joseph Dolson. A jolly evening was spent in music, games and dancing.

Malton Farms Change Hands
Five of Malton County's best farms were sold this week. John Lister of Toronto bought Oscar Dow's estate at Drumquinn; John Cantelon of Hornby bought the late E. K. Frankland, Toronto; R. J. Burnfield of Orillia bought the Milne farm east of Milton, formerly owned by the late John White, M. P. for Etobicoke; F. T. Flinloff of Perth purchased John Crasshaw's farm near Milton and John Carr of Owen Sound bought the well known Hepburn homestead adjoining Milton. Many citizens of Toronto are buying farms in Halton County. The above sales were made by the Willoughby Farm Agency through their Representative, M. E. Nixon, Milton.

Raz Theatre
Wednesday—"Devotion" First National Picture starring Hazel Dawn; Chapter 15 of "Winners of the West"; Fathe comedy.
Friday—"Love Madness" starring Louise Glaum; comedy "The Bawling" starring Larry Simon; Fathe News.
Saturday, matinee and night—"General Post" a military drama, 8 reels; "The Battle of Jutland" 8 reels. The Dominion President of the Navy League of Canada says it was with great pleasure that I received your screen picture "The Battle of Jutland" no amount of written description could explain the vastness and the strategy of the "Battle of Jutland" as the screen does; everyone with a drop of British blood, and every Estorized Canadian should see it, in order to make them realize the heritage they are enjoying in the protection that such an organization as the British Navy has afforded them.
Car of Cars
