

SAFETY FIRST
 I was slumbering here
 On Williams Lake,
 He heard the bell,
 But had no brake.
 At fifty miles
 Drove Ollie Pidd,
 He thought he wouldn't
 Skid but did.
 At thirty miles
 Drove Edward Shaw,
 The motor stopped,
 But Ed kept on.
 Beneath this soil
 Lays William Whissen,
 He didn't stop
 To look or listen.
 Here, six feet deep,
 Is William Jolley,
 His engine stalled
 In front of a trolley.
 Ashest to ashes
 And dust to dust,
 Ollie was always speed,
 When a tire "bust".
 In memory of
 A. Channen Tacket,
 A train, a crossing,
 He didn't make it.

Ford "Waiting for Bill"

"Good morning Elmer - through seeding yet?" "No, but we'll finish this week if the rain holds off - just waiting now for Bill to get back with the team." Waiting for Bill to get back with the team.

How many crops are doomed to failure "waiting for Bill! The team is on the road when it should be on the land. The seed is in the soil when it should be in the ground—and the separator tells the story in half filled bins at threshing time.

The farmer who owns a Ford Truck loses no time "waiting for Bill." His hauling jobs never interfere with getting in his crops. Make up your mind to-day that you too will haul with a Ford Truck. We are prepared to meet you more than half way in the matter of terms.

Butter was never intended for hog feed

But it is being done today on every cow-owner's place where an inferior or half-worn-out cream separator is being used, or where the farmer is skimming by the wasteful "gravity" method.
 And it's a wholly unnecessary waste, too. Because a De Laval Cream Separator will soon save enough cream to pay for itself, and put a stop to all the waste of cream and time and labor for many years to come.
