Needle Works Employees Pledge
The Canada Needle Works employees were about the first to start the season with a most successful outing and picnic on Saturday, June 10th to Burlington beach. The party of twenty-two left town by motor truck shortly before 10 a.m., returning shortly after 10 p.m., travelling via the 7th line. On the way they went to Burlington and returning the same way. The girls are to be congratulated for the good eats which they so kindly provided, and judging by the joyous shouts and singing emanating from those in the truck as it proceeded up Main street, we think that everyone must have had an enjoyable time. Mr. Cook and Mr. Owens were heard whispering that another picnic of the same nature would be quite in order. Here's hoping.

News—Wednesday
On Thursday, June 14th, at four o'clock, the wedding of Martha Kennedy, elder daughter of the late William McDowell and Mrs. Janet McDowell of Erin, to Mr. Robert Henry Hunter, son of the late Francis Hunter and Mrs. Hunter of Norval, Ont., was solemnized by Rev. J. A. Lindsay at the home of the bride's mother. The bride, unattended, was given away by her brother, William McDowell. She wore a charming gown of sand satin with canton crepe cape of the same shade and carried pink opelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. Lohengrin's March was played by Miss Flora McEwen, sister of the bride. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace with diamond clasp and to the pianist a pearl pin. During the signing of the register Mr. Joseph Hunter, brother of the groom, sang "Oh Promise Me." The living room was profusely decorated with ferns and flowers. Buffet luncheon was served in the dining-room, the table being decorated with baskets of sweet peas and yellow and pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter left by motor for Georgetown, en route to Duluth, the bride travelling in a shoddy suit of sand cloth and leghorn hat trimmed with ostrich and lace scarf. Upon their return they will reside at Norval, Ont.

"The Four Horsemen" will be at Box Theatre, Tuesday and Thursday, June 20th, and 22nd.

"Let me get him on Long Distance, and I'll soon settle this," says the shrewd business man, as an emergency arises.

His personality, with the persuasive tones that helped him build up his business in the old days, is still the greatest force at his command. It seldom fails to bring the needed results.

Long Distance permits him to retain that personal contact and influence with n en in distant places on which his success was built. "If one of our travellers fails to secure an important order, he gets me on Long Distance before the interview is over, and I nearly always land it."

The power of Long Distance as a business-getter is only beginning to be appreciated. "Use the Peel to Sell", and see how economically it produces results.

FOUNDERS IN CANADA

ON Place d'Armes in the City of Montreal stands a monument to Simeon de Maisonneuve who, landing near this spot in the year 1642, founded the settlement which is now the City of Montreal.

Facing Place d'Armes stands the Bank of Montreal, which opened its doors for business a short distance from the same spot over one hundred years ago.

From the Settlement founded by Maisonneuve, civilization has spread to the east and west until to-day the Dominion of Canada extends from Halifax to Vancouver.

Likewise the Bank of Montreal has grown, until after over a century of steady and conservative progress, it to-day has Branches in all of the cities and larger towns in Canada, with offices in the principal financial centres of the world, and correspondents in every country.
