The accident happened in front of Sir Joseph Flavell's residence, about two miles east of Oakville.

Halton's Splendid Regiment
At the recent camp at Niagara the "Halton Rifles" lived up to its reputation as one of the best rifle regiments in Canada. Not only was the regiment the strongest in numbers of any unit in camp, but had what was considered by many the best band in camp. Amongst other duties the Halton Rifles provided the entire program at St. Marks Church Garden Party to the satisfaction of all. The regiment itself occupied the position of honor during the inspection and March Past before Major General McBrus, Chief of the General Staff. The Halton Rifles was also the unit chosen to put on a show the same day in the nature of an attack on an entrenched position to the accompaniment of rifle fire, bombs, flares and smoke screens. In the sports, the Halton and Duffy boys carried off more than their share of the events, furnishing the champion 125 lb boxer runner up in the 135 lb class, winner of the 100 yds dash, and 2nd in the 200 yds. Everyone had a good time and the grab was the best ever, thanks to the financial support of a loyal County Council.

Union
On Monday evening, June 20th, a large gathering of parents and children met at the home of Mr. James McKane to say good bye and make a presentation to Miss Cheyne who has been the popular teacher at S. S. No. 3 Ching.

Mr. A. McDonald was chairman of the evening and after appropriate introductory remarks called on Miss Mildred McDonald who read the following address while Ruth Anderson, Janice McKane and Joseph Cook presented Miss Cheyne with a beautiful manicure set, brush, comb, mirror, hat brush, etc.

Dear Miss Cheyne—
The teachers and boys and girls of S.S. No. 3 Chingacousy, and the members of Union church, have gathered here to spend a sociable evening with you on the eve of your departure from our midst. We feel your removal will be a distinct loss to the school section, community and church.

During your four year's sojourn you have made a host of friends. Your bright smile, hearty handshake and readiness to help in all work has indeed been an inspiration to us.

Your duties as teacher have been discharged with honour and already we see the fruits of your noble, untiring work in the splendid stand taken by some of your ex-pupils.

Teaching is a noble calling, an ideal work, because it is a work of service and sacrifice, and you rejoice in that service. To be a good teacher one must be a good woman, and a good woman has no time to waste. Your work has employed your time to the best advantage and has indeed proved worth while. Work develops our gifts, powers and nature and you have all these and are thus fitted for your active work. You have also the essential qualities of one in your calling, namely, patience, endurance, sympathy, love, cheerfulness and tact.

You have ever upheld the high ideals of citizenship to your pupils and we expect to hear in years to come of many notable who can claim the little stone school of Upper Pitt as their teacher's foundation and you as their teacher.

Your work in the choir, Sabbath school and Young Peoples' Society has ever been appreciated.

In social gatherings your witty readings and your voice mingling with those of other young people has ever been a source of enjoyment. While we regret your leaving, we trust that it will be for your future benefit and welfare.

We ask you to accept this bit of ivory as a slight token of our esteem for you and as a remembrance from your old friends and neighbors of S.S. No. 3, Chingacousy.

We shall indeed miss you to come to see the cheering wood, the kindly advice and the hearty handshake that helps to draw us all closer together and make life worth living.

Our hope for you is that wherever you are you may be long spared to enjoy God's richest blessing.

Be assured that you are leaving behind a host of warm friends who will rejoice to hear of your happiness and will ever be glad to greet you on each occasion when you can visit us.

Signed: J. McKane, Walter Patterson, C. C. Lyons.
Miss Cheyne very feelingly thanked all for their kind words and handsome gift. Lunch was then served by the ladies and speeches followed by Rev. Walter Patterson, H. J. W. Taylor, L. Thompson, Mrs. Geo. Leslie, Miss A. Suteward, James McKane and John Lyons. Instrumental music by Misses Fuckerling, Miss G. Anderson, E. Lyons and Thos. Leslie.
