THE FORD'S PRAYER

The Ford is my chariot, I shall not want another. It maketh me lie down in wet places. It destroyeth my soul. It leadeth me into paths of ridicule for its name sake. It prepareth a breakdown for me in the presence of mine enemies. Yes, though I run through the valley at twenty-five per cent. I am loved up the hill. I will fear more evil, when it is with me. Its rods and its shafts they die comfort me. It smiteth my face with oil, its water batheth over. Surely to goodness, if Lizzie follows me all the days of my life, I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

YE DINNA UNDERSTAND
It's use your fault my darlin'. I think it's most my ain. But ye dinna see my heart o' heart. An' I canna speak it plain. Frae east to west no better mon There lives in 't the land. But I'm weary for a tender look. An' ye dinna understand. My gowns are brow and bonny. My gems like starlight shine. Ah! dinna ye ken a woman's heart. Neath gown and gem may pine? Frae east to west no prouder wife. Yet I want to hear a word o' love. An' ye dinna understand. If ye find me fair, my darlin', An' true and sweet to-day, When the bit brown leaves are whirrin' fast. A-down our autumn way. Oh! canna ye see, my ain guid mon. 'Thou'r't best o' a the land.' For I'm weary for a tender thought. An' ye dinna understand.

Jasper Park Lodge

An Ideal Stop-Off Point

With the advent of reduced fares to Alberta and British Columbia points, many who have long anticipated seeing the Canadian Rockies and Pacific Coast will make the journey this year. To them, and to the individual travelling "Across Canada" for purely business reasons, the "National Way" and the Canadian National Railway's premier trains, the "Continental Limited" and the "National" appeal most strongly, the route connecting as it does the great urban centres of Canada and traversing regions of outstanding interest. The various Canadian National hostellers on route suggest excellent stop-off points and are noted for the excellence of their service. To their number is added this year Jasper Park Lodge on Lac Beauvert.

Jasper Park, Alberta, in the Canadian Rockies is the largest of Canada's National Parks. Its area of 6,400 square miles offering unlimited holiday possibilities to the Tourist and the Sportsman. Dolley Varden trout lurk in the clear pure mountain streams. Beautiful transparent lakes mirror the encircling mountains, and a new unspoiled Alpine wonderland of snow-crowned peaks and verdant valleys gladdens the eye. In this delightful setting on Lac Beauvert, three miles from Jasper Station (with which it is connected by motor car service), is Jasper Park Lodge, operated by the Canadian National Railway's Hotels Department, and now open for the reception of guests.

Of artistic log construction, the Lodge comprises a large, comfortable Lounge building, surrounded by Dining Hall and separate sleeping buildings, each containing sitting-room and four bedrooms, electric lighted, with all modern conveniences, running water in each room, baths, etc. In conjunction with the Lodge is a Dancing Pavilion where good music assures to the guests do delightful evening diversion.

From the Lodge a magnificent panorama greets the eye. Mount Edith Cavell, so called in memory of the martyred British Red Cross Nurse, stands out in bold relief, its glinting slopes making it to appear as a sheet suspended from the heavens. The picturesque valley of the Athabasca is flanked by Pyramid Mountain, the richness of its varied color effects presenting a very striking contrast. Whistlers Mountain, Colon Range, the Bonhomme, are but a few of the mighty peaks that meet the gaze. Hiding in, of course, the popular pastime and exhilarating sport. Within easy reach of the Lodge, foot or by motor car, are numerous points of interest. Maligne Canon and Gorge, one of the most interesting attractions in the Park is but six miles distant. Easily accessible to the motorist is the famous Nure, stands out in bold relief, its glinting slopes making it to appear as a sheet suspended from the heavens.
