country is a veritable paradisor work. Within its vast forests there roam at will nearly all species of big Satisfaction Guaranteed game common to the North American continent. Of the big and burly moose it is the home. Red PRONE 232 deer have a wide range and, in some sections are numerous while caribou are to be had by the hunter who seeks them in their feeding grounds. In several dis tricts bear are to be found, while the smaller fur bearing tenimals are common to a wide range of

Disciples of Isaac Walton will find in the numerous rivers and lakes all that the most ardent of them can desire, both in regard to extent and variety of fish which abound in their waters. Like, or grey trout, ranging in weight from six to twenty pounds, are com-mon to several of the lakes. Waters in which speckled trout abound are easily accessible, atthough, naturally, the more remote the districts the better the sport. In some of the rivers and streams the square tail trout weighing from five to seven pounds. Good bass fishing is to be had in certain parts, and particularly in northwestern Quebec One specie of fish which is common to some of the older parts of Canada not found in this far northern country is the maskiconge. But in some of the waters flowing into James Bay are to be caught the lordly sturgeon, sports men having landed fish of this species ranging in weight all the way from twenty to two hundred pounds. In the waters contiguous to Hudson Bay excellent salmon fishing is occasionally experienced. Pike and pickerel are common to the waters of this northern wild.

To the canonist who seeks ad venture in territory beyond the Night Phone 235 j fringe of civilization the waters of the northern parts of Quebeq and Ontario afford ideal facilities Rivers, many of them mighty streams which for generations have served as highways to adventurere fur tradere and transers bound to and from Hudson Bay, are almost beyond compute in number, the country being grid ironed by them. Wonderfully in teresting cance trips, either ex-tended or limited, are available. Take for example the six routes to Moose Factory, all of which find their way into Moose River about 80 miles south of Moose Factory on James Bay.
