A PRAYER

Grant me the strength to meet to-day.
Whatever burdens I must bear,
Let me be cheerful when I may,
Nor magnify my bit of care.
Open my eyes that I may see,
The large purpose of the plan,
And when disaster threatens me,
Lord, let me face it as a man.
Let me have vision so that I
May see beyond the doubt and dread,
To-morrow's smiling path of sky,
Let me not scorn the path I tread.
Let me behold the finished task—
Now not, but in the years to be,
Grant me the faith and strength,
I ask,
To bear its hardships willingly.
Lord, when I falter and am weak,
And diffidence bars my way,
Hold up to me the goal I seek,
And let me see beyond to-day.
Lord, let me find in toilsome care,
And bitter service to be done,
In petty failing and despair,
The larger glory to be won.

Limehouse

An evening long to be remembered was spent at Mountain View, the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown, on Friday evening, Oct. 20th, 1922, it being the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day. Early in the evening the guests, numbering about forty gathered around the beautiful tables which were suitably decorated with flowers and silver, to partake of a banquet which plainly displayed the skill of the hostess and her assistants.

Later in the evening the guests gathered in the parlor where an interesting impromptu program was given, Rev. J. E. Moore acting as chairman. The program consisted of speeches and music. Two numbers worthy of special mention were talks given by Miss Annie Rose of Huntington, Quebec, on her trip to Bermuda and by Miss Evelyn Brown of Uxbridge on her trip to Europe.

The following address was then read by Mr. Richard B. Moore, eldest brother of Mrs. Brown, the presentation being made by Miss Milla Oke, niece of Mrs. Brown. To Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown:— Dear friends:—We, your relatives and friends, meet and greet you in your beautiful home on this, the 25th anniversary of your marriage. How quickly the years have flown, bearing many of our loved ones to the land beyond the river, where no farewells are said. We have come today to express our love and affectionate regard, thanking the giver of all good things for having spared you to celebrate this auspicious occasion. We note with appreciation, the fine and well equipped farm and splendid residence you own and care for. Anything that is worth doing, all is worth doing well. We note that "Rob" is an excellent farmer and "Aunt Hannah," as we all do delight to call her, is a poetess of no mean order, a wife and housekeeper to be proud of. We wish you both of you so highly esteemed in the neighborhood where you have lived so long. We wish you much joy and many happy returns of your wedding day. Please accept this token of our love and good will. Signed on behalf of the donors, brothers, sisters and near relatives. Limehouse, Oct. 15, 1922. Many other beautiful and costly gifts were given by their friends. The Women's Institute gave a beautiful casserole. The friends dispersed after the singing of "For They are Jolly Good Fellows," wishing that they might be present at a similar occasion twenty-five years hence.

Guests were present from Toronto, Stouffville, Uxbridge, Quebec, Stratford, New Dundee and Charlevoix, Mich.—Com.

Milton

The four men implicated in the pocket-picking charge, and who were arrested here on Milton Fair day, appeared before Police Magistrate Shields at the Court House on Tuesday afternoon, and after hearing the evidence were committed for trial.

At the closing meeting of the 46th annual convention of the Provincial W.C.T.U. at Oshawa last Friday afternoon, Mrs. J. M. Denyes, Milton, was re-elected Superintendent of the department of Scientific Temperance Instruction. Mrs. Denyes was also one of the four delegates appointed to attend the world's convention to be held in Philadelphia in three weeks' time.—Reformer.

Mr. W. H. Speight, Toronto, was so far recovered from the recent severe injuries, which he sustained five weeks ago yesterday, that he was able to be removed home from the hospital. He is now making good progress toward recovery.

Ballinafad

The farmers in this part are very busy picking apples, potatoes and turnips.

Mr. Wm. Shortill of London spent a few days recently with his mother, Mrs. Richard Shortill, and other friends here.

The Rev. Mr. Waite conducted the anniversary service in the afternoon in the Methodist Church and Mr. Evans in the evening, there being a good turnout both services, while the Erin choir led the singing and furnished the music for the day.

Address and Presentation

On Monday evening the friends and neighbors of Mr. Hojce Barnes and his sister, Mrs. Sutton, to the number of nearly sixty, met at their home on the eighth line for a good-bye social evening and to mark their respect and esteem by the gift of a handsome library table of fine oak with two chairs to match, accompanied by a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums for Mrs. Sutton. The evening was spent in games, music and social intercourse, with singing of old favorites by all the company. The following address was presented with the gift and several of the neighbors expressed in short speeches the appreciation of all, and their regret at parting with Mr. Barnes and Mrs. Sutton as neighbors of the eighth line.

To Mr. H. Barnes:
Dear Friend:—We, your neighbors and friends, have met here tonight to spend a social hour prior to your removal from our midst. You have been a resident of the 8th line practically all your life, a good neighbor and friend ever willing to help when called upon and have taken a real interest in the community; also you have been a member of this division for a number of years. Your care of the traveling public will be hard to duplicate. We trust that good health and prosperity may follow you, and though we are sorry to lose you from our midst, we are glad you are not going far away and we look forward to meeting you often.

We now ask you to accept this den set as a token of our esteem and we hope it will remind you of the good wishes of our friends. Signed on behalf of the neighbors, R. W. Reid, J. A. Giffon, W. H. Leslie.
To Mrs. Sutton:
Dear Madam:—Kindly accept this bouquet with our kindest regards and best wishes on behalf of the ladies.

REV. GEO. A. MITCHELL
Word was received in Toronto last week of the death in Lacombe, Alta., of Rev. Geo. A. Mitchell, father of General C. H. Mitchell and P. H. Mitchell, Toronto. Rev. Special Trains for Hunters

The open season for hunting deer and moose in Northern Ontario is rapidly approaching. South of the French and Mattawa rivers Nov. 15th to 30th inclusive, north and west of these rivers, Oct. 26th to Nov. 30th inclusive. North of the Transcontinental Railway line the season is from Sept. 15 to Nov. 15th inclusive.

The Canadian National Railway traverses the finest hunting territory in this country. This fact with their special and regular train service makes "The National Way" the premier line for the hunter. The hunting grounds are vast there is game for everyone.

The selection of grounds is a most important matter and one which requires careful study. The territory reached by the Canadian National lines north of the 47th Sound is already a favourite one but the new country east and west of Capreol is as yet comparatively little known to the hunter and should, therefore, be highly attractive to the follower of the deer and moose.

The Canadian National Railway are providing special train service, which will regular trains will meet all demands. Special trains will be operated as follows:—Leave Toronto Union Station at 11.15 p.m. Oct. 31st, for Capreol and intermediate points and 11.15 p.m. Nov. 2nd, 3rd and 4th for Key Jet, and intermediate points. The usual ample accommodation of sleeping cars, baggage cars and coaches will be provided.

The annual Hunter's Leaflet issued by the Canadian National Railway is now ready for distribution, and may be obtained on application to any agent of the company, or write General Passenger Department, Room 607 Royal Bank Bldg., Toronto.

Stead's Latest

"Neighbors" is a fascinating romance of the great Canadian West. You will never have to ask that question, "What is Canadian literature?" again when you have read Robert Stead's latest and so far, his greatest novel, "Neighbors."

These are few Canadians who are not familiar with this author's former novels, "The Homesteaders," "The Cowpuncher," and "Denslow Grant." This new book runs true to the Stead tradition of a good story.

"Neighbors" relates how two families of young people, brother and sister, neighbors, in a little Ontario town; neighbors, fifteen years later; in an adjoining home-stead in the Saskatchewan country, find life and love. The story runs smoothly until a young Englishman settles in the community and upsets all expectations, including the reader's. But the best part of "Neighbors" is in my mind, and what makes it a great book, is the picture of the people who make up that far-scattered "Neighborhood" of homesteaders. Like in the old villain who finds "locations" for the gullible newcomer; the "Snoozers" are a gaunt big-eyed Polish family, who live in a cave that the previous live stock may have builded shelter—and the widow, and the Scotch family—and the wedding! All of that is writing of the finest type, and places this Canadian book in high order among the best literature of to-day.

"Neighbors," a happy novel of the North-west, by Robert Stead, Hodder & Stoughton, Toronto. $1.75.

Game Protection

Mr. Kerr, Inspector of Game and Fisheries for the Hamilton district, which includes Halton, was in Milton on Saturday with the object of arranging for efficient protection for game in this neighborhood. He said he would recommend the appointment of a local fish and game warden, having secured a good man for the position. The appointment is badly needed. The passing of game and fishery laws without providing machinery for their enforcement is a farce. The Ontario government gets a large revenue from hunting, trapping and fishing licenses and expends too little of it for protection. Mr. Kerr has the supervision of four counties. He is an exceptionally capable and energetic officer, fearless in the performance of his duties, but his territory, four counties, is much too large for one man. He should have a number of assistants.—(Champion)

—Mr. Whiteport of Brampton, a barber of thirty years' experience, who has been working at the Exchange Hotel the past few weeks, will be there again this week end. Call and see us. Two barbers Friday and Saturday.
