Gowland-Wilcox

A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. George Wilson of Georgetown on Wednesday, October 25th, at 8 o'clock, when their only daughter, Lorla Edna, was united in marriage to Mr. John Stanley Gowland of this town, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Gowland of Nelson. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of ivory crepe trimmed with pearls and a girlish white satin wreath with orange blossoms. Her embroidered veil of Brussels net was held in place with pearls and orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. She wore as her only ornament the gift of the groom, a diamond and platinum bar pin. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Wray Davidson of Georgetown, beneath a bower of evergreen and wedding bells in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. Little Miss Rita Fisher, cousin of the bride, very daintily in her frock of pink satin, carried the wedding ring, embedded in a basket of pink and white carnations. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Dr. Wilson of Woodstock, and during the signing of the register Miss Frances Horse sang very sweetly, "O Perfect Love." A dainty buffet luncheon was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Gowland left for Toronto, thence to Elgin, Illinois, the bride travelling in a smart tailored suit of navy tricotine with black hat. On their return they will take up their residence on the groom's farm near Milton.

A TREMENDOUS DRAMA OF LIFE

The story of stories—playing upon the heart strings with its throbbing poignant drama replacing with tender smiles the tears it will bring, as its gentle homely humor sinks deeper and deeper into your heart. It is a story of home—a wonderful, beautiful love—of pathos and humor—of a wife who was an outcast—of a son who suffered because of his love for the Old Woman. A story for you—for your children—for your father and mother—for the whole world.
