Proposed to Georgetown Bank
 Word that Mr. J. Lloyd Thompson, the popular manager of the Bank of Hamilton was promoted to conduct the affairs of the Bank of Hamilton at Georgetown, was learned with pleasure by his many friends here, who at the same time regretted losing such an active and prominent citizen. Mr. Thompson has been manager of the Bank of Hamilton here for some twelve years, coming here at the opening of that branch. During his stay here the bank has made steady progress under his management and also built up a strong connection with the farmers in this community. During his sojourn here Mr. Thompson always took an active interest in any movement for the benefit of the community, was a friend and supporter of all clean sport, and was active in the various patriotic schemes. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who left on Monday, carried with them the best wishes of a host of friends. —Paris Star-Transcript.

Terra Colla

Last week we had a very interesting write up from our hamlet with reference to the "Non Such" ball team.
 The meeting place known as the Hay Stack in which Mr. Cook Robin, owner of the lizix which provided lunch for the Hay Stack meeting held in behalf of his friends, did not concern the ball team.
 A flying spirit happened that way and broke up the party and led the afterward lunch to the "ice of the stack" and birds of the air.
 We would mention casually that the proceeds from Mr. Nip-a-Cross' lucrative business go to a brickyard, not a ball team.
 Mr. Cook Robin was at the dance given by the ball team. He was so well entertained that he had a quiet nap leading to pleasant dreams of a trip from Brampton to Terra Colla, wherein Little Lizzie, for some unknown reason, slid in the ditch, resulting in a very early return to Terra Colla, (about 8 a.m.).
 This seems to have been part of a former business occurring every night of the said week, in the early summer.
 A very enjoyable evening was spent under the auspices of the Hay Stack at the home of the Gas man.
 Mr. Gray, who had such a glorious time at the previous dance, did himself justice again.
 Mr. Cook Robin made a flying trip from Toronto, to attend the dance, showing his love for the days gone by.
 This may be so.
 We do not know.
 It looks a little queer.
 If wedding bells don't ring far away 'They'll soon be ringing here.
 —On behalf of the Non-Such ball team.
