WHICH ARE YOU?

There are just two kind of people on earth to-day—Just two kinds of people, no more, I say.

Not the singer and saint, for 'tis well understood

That the good are half bad and the bad are half good.

Not the rich and the poor, for to count a man's wealth

You must first know the state of his conscience and health:

Not the humble and proud, for, in life's span

Who puts on vain airs is not counted a man:

Not the happy and sad, for the swift flying years

Bring each man his laurel and each man his tears.

No! The two kind of people on earth that I mean

Are the people who lift and the people who lean.

Wherever you go you will find the world's misuses,

Are always divided, in just two classes.

And, 'oddiy enough, you will find, too, I woen

There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.

In what class are you? Are you easing the load

Of overtaxed lifters who toil down the road?

Or are you a leaner who lets others bear

Your portion of labor and worry and care?

J. A. TRACY Clerk Township of Esquimaux, of Hamilton, dismissed a charge laid against five young men who were playing football on Sunday. They played in a vacant lot. The magistrate said, "If people can play golf on Sunday I don't see in any harm in these boys playing football."

Both Forgetful

A certain young man wrote the following letter to a prominent business firm, ordering a razor:

Dear Sirs—Please find enclosed $5.00 for one of your razors as advertised and oblige.

John Jones.

P.S.—I forgot to enclose the 50c but no doubt a firm of your high standing will send the razor anyway.

The firm addressed received the letter and replied as follows:

Dear Sir—Your most valued order received the other day and will say in reply that we are sending the razor as per request, and hope that it will prove satisfactory.

P.S.—We forgot to enclose the razor, but no doubt a man with your cheek will have no need of it.

Glenwilliams

The following item from a London paper of last week refers to an old Glen boy and his bride. Mr. J. W. J. Allen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Allen, Glenwilliams.

An interesting event took place yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. J. Allen, 9 High Street, when they celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding day.

A delightful feature of the occasion was the presence of the parents of both bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allen and Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore, respectively, at the high tea, at which the bride and groom of 25 years ago entertained a large number of relatives.

The table, centered with golden mums, was beautifully arranged with silver maple leaves and hearts in silver, while a place of honor was occupied by the three-story wedding cake, which carried out the color scheme in its decorations of silver hearts and ornaments. Many handsome and useful presents in silver were given to the bride and groom by their relative and friends as affectionate tributes on the momentous occasion. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. J. Allen were married in Georgetown, Ont., on November 10, 1897, by Rev. Mr. Mitchell. Mrs. Mitchell being the bride's only attendant. Mr. and Mrs. Allen have two sons, William, who lives with his wife and daughter, Lillian Shirley, at 310 Simcoe street, and Victor Gray Allen, at home. Among the other guests present at the reunion yesterday in honor of the silver anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen, Glenwilliams; Thomas Allen, brother of the groom, of Georgetown; Mrs. W. Harrison and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. Breton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dinmore, sister of the bride, with their daughter, Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Greenfield, Mr. W. Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stevens, and daughter, Alison, Messrs Roberts of London, J. Foster of Glenwilliams, Mrs. Charles Wallbridge, Brampton; Mr. and Mrs. Miss Guelph.

Obituary

Elizabeth Conover, beloved wife of James Arnott, Brampton, passed to her rest on Nov. 21st, 1922. The deceased was a daughter of Nelson Conover, formerly a resident of the fourth line, Chinguacousy. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Arnott were residents of the town line, Chinguacousy, for the major part of their lives, being known by a wide circle of friends throughout the district. From the town line they lived retired for six years prior to their going to Brampton five years ago. For the past three years Mrs. Arnott has been ailing and passed quietly to her rest on Saturday last in her 70th year.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnott have been married within a few months of fifty years. Besides a bereaved husband three daughters are left, Mrs. P. G. Early of Brampton, Mrs. A. L. Noble of Norval and Mrs. C. H. Damsel of Durham.

Mable Arnott, a deceased daughter, died some years ago when the family lived on the town line. Mrs. Charles Armstrong and Mr. Harvey Conover of Brampton are sister and brother of the deceased.

The funeral, which took place on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, from the late residence in Brampton, proceeded to Norval Presbyterian Church where service was conducted. Interment was made in Norval cemetery. The Arnott family were connected with the Norval church for a great number of years. From thence Mr. and Mrs. Arnott removed to Georgetown and subsequently, at the time of her death Mrs. Arnott was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Brampton. Rev. Mr. McArthur of Brampton assisted by Rev. Mr. Cameron of Georgetown and Rev. Mr. Patterson of Norval, conducted the service. #### Milton

Some of the Milton deer hunters are home from the north, bringing a deer each. The largest which has come so far is a buck shot by Bert Buck, weighing 307 lbs. and having ten-point antlers.

On Wednesday about 4 p.m. Geo. H. Sheppard was at work as a driller in the shaft pits at the works of the Milton Pressed Brick Co., Ltd., at Milton Heights. He prepared two dynamite charges and attempted to fire them. One went off but the other did not. After waiting for a time Mr. Sheppard went to the unexploded hole to investigate. Just after he reached it the charge exploded and mortified him horribly. His right arm was blown off and much of his face was torn away. He died within an hour. He was born close to Milton and had spent his life here. He was an industrious, steady man, who stood high in the estimation of his friends.—Champion.

CANADIAN MONEY is now above par, but the Americans, except in the border cities, do not seem to be aware of the fact. Let anyone try to pass Canadian money in Washington, Cleveland, Chicago and any other American city and he will soon recognize the United States needs a lesson on international courtesy that will remind them of what this country has a right to expect in the way of friendly inter-change.
