Presentation at Ashgrove

There was a very pleasant gathering of former and new neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hulls at their new home, the former Alexander property, 7th line, the new neighbors to welcome them and their old neighbors and friends from Norval to wish them well and assure them of their regard and good will.
As a mark of their esteem their friends and old neighbors presented them with a dozen silver knives and forks, with the following address read by Mr. Howell, their former neighbor and their old home. To Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hulls:
On the occasion of your removing from our neighborhood, your friends and neighbors desire to place on record their appreciation of the many qualities that have made you a warm place in our regard.
In your going, we have lost a good neighbor, but our regret is softened by the knowledge that our loss will be other gain. In your new and most desirable surroundings we feel sure that your enterprise and energy will make the change a most successful one for you and your children and that you will make the new place a very dear and happy home.
In all the effort that will go to make your success and happiness we would like you to feel that we have a deep interest, and we wish to assure you of our esteem and good will of which the gift we have made you is but a small though tangible expression.
James Inglis, James Hughes, Wm. McClure, W. H. Bell, David J. Howell.
Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors.
