Malton Yearlings on Top Again
In October, at the Union Stock Yards, Toronto, when eight or ten counties competed in car-load lots of bacon hogs, Malton was first, and at the General Breeders' Association of the Province of Quebec sale, held at Three Rivers, by Star of Nova Scotia, the cattle sales were rather disappointing, with sheep little better. The wine entries brought the real money, particularly in Yorkshires. The top price for hares in this breed ran up to $102, this amount being paid for a six month old, bred by J. E. Featherstone & Son, Hoinby, Ont. Another bear bred by the same breeders brought $100. Tom Curtis, Bertrams and Chester Whites were the other breeds offered.
