

Matthew's Drug Store
 "The Home of the Victrola"
 Agent Page & Shaw High Grade Chocolates

The
JANUARY VICTOR RECORDS are an
EXCEPTIONALLY FINE ASSORTMENT
 CALL AND HEAR THEM.

D. J. MATTHEW
 DRUGS and STATIONERY

Personals.

Mrs. E. Finley is visiting friends in Detroit.

Miss Mabel Miller was at Fergus over the holiday.

Mr. R. D. Warren of Toronto was in town on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Grandy spent New Year's at Newmarket.

Mr. Wallace Ingram visited relatives in Beeton over the holiday.

Mrs. Smythe had the misfortune last Sunday to fall and fracture her leg.

Miss Margaret Lord of Toronto spent the week end with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Watson spent New Year's with friends at Welland.

Miss Mary C. Willson visited friends in Chatham over the New Year holiday.

Mrs. P. A. Harley spent New Year's at the home of her parents in Montreal.

Mrs. W. A. Miller and Miss Davis visited friends in Hamilton over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnim of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hazelwood.

Miss Margaret Finley left today for Southern California where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Fred Garbutt and son of Welland spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. W. McLean.

Miss Irene Thompson and Mr. Jack Thompson spent the week end with friends at Whitby.

Mrs. Charles Burnsides left last Friday for Montreal where she is attending a family reunion.

Miss Ethel Gilmer returned to her school at Brantford after spending the holidays at her home here.

Miss Helen Ross left on Sunday night for Port Arthur where she has accepted a position on the Collegiate staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Doughty and Mrs. George Worrid of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. Buck last Friday.

Miss Jean Adams and Miss Alice Williamson have returned to Normal school at Hamilton after spending the holidays at home.

John Wrigglesworth, former Warden of Halton, is seriously ill at his home.

Mrs. Edward Bowman who has been spending the past few months at her father's on Maple Ave. at Tuesday for her new home at Whitby.

Miss Myrtle Hill of Barrie, Annie Peace, Miss Rhoda and Mr. George Edge of Halton spent the New Year holidays at Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Peck's.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. I. entertained the latter's parents and sisters with a party on New Year's day. Thirty in all partook of a repast followed by toasts. The afternoon was spent in music, games and dancing. All departed feeling and pleasure these days afford.

BARN
 PREL AND HA

Barnhill
 thanks
 and Pr

Local News Items

Write it 1928.

County Council will meet on Jan. 23rd.

Are you attending the week-of-prayer services?

The new receipt tax came into effect on Monday.

Some of our local enthusiasts enjoyed a game of New Year's day.

Begin the year with God. Don't fail to attend the Week of Prayer services.

Quite a number of young people have been enjoying the skating on Stewart's pond.

The New Year was ushered in by the playing of Knox Church chimes and the ringing of Church and town bells.

Our Citizens Band serenaded the Mayor, Reeve and Councillors elect on Monday evening and were royally entertained.

R. R. Fleming, Agricultural Representative, has taken up his residence in Burlington. The office remains in Milton.

The brick work of O'Neill & Son's new block was completed yesterday and the roofers expect to finish the roof this week.

A physician declares the secret of health is the eating of raw onions. The trouble is keeping the secret from one's friends.

The Oakville town council, at its last meeting, voted Mayor Forster $250 for his services to the town during the past year.

Mrs. Kilpatrick of Limehouse was the oldest person to poll a vote in the township election on Monday. She is over 90 years of age.

Our hockey team played an exhibition game at Brampton last week. They did fine considering they have had no chance to practice.

Have you renewed your subscription to the Herald? If not, we would appreciate your kind consideration and an early remittance.

The annual banquet of the Terra Cotta U.F.O. and U.F.W.O. will be held at the home of Mr. Ben Young on Friday evening, Jan. 5th.

Flooded half a million dollars for smelting copper. See Sunday's Herald and Examiner, Chicago's best newspaper. Buy it today at The Herald Drug Store.

When you have made your first home-brew on the kitchen range, just pour a little of it on the sink. If it takes the enamel off, pour it all in the sink.

The sympathy of THE HERALD is extended to Mr. R. White of the Milton Reformer, in the death last week of his brother, Mr. Dennis White, of Toronto.

Are you planning for the Week of Prayer services? We had a good meeting last night. Three more are to follow. They are for you. See program elsewhere.

The solos in the carols at the services at St. Georges Church last Sunday were admirably taken by two of the boy chorists, Masters Charlie Kirk and Jack Orichton.

Reeve George Hillmer of Oakville was in town last week and made the Herald a pleasant call. It looks very much as if the genial George will be the Warden of Halton for 1928.

The dance given by the young men in the town hall last week was well attended and much enjoyed. The splendid music and delicious refreshments were a feature of the evening.

The following prizes were won at Geolph Winter Fair on dressed fowl owned and raised by G. W. Davis, Charles St., viz:—1st on 6 cockerels, 2nd on pair guinea fow, 3rd on pr. cockerels; 5th on pr. cockerels.

A meeting of the Directors of Esqueping Agricultural Society will be held in the Council Chamber this Wednesday evening, Jan. 3rd, at 8 o'clock. The annual meeting will be held on Friday, Jan. 19th at 1 o'clock.

A Concert will be held in S. S. No. 15 Esqueping school house, on Friday evening, January 12th, when the pupils will present a New Year's Pageant, "The Dream of the Months." Programme commences at 8.15. Admission 25c and 15c.

Over in Russia a publisher offers a month's subscription for 1,000,000 rubles and a two-months subscription for 2,000,000 rubles. Compared with that, $1.50 for twelve months sounds pretty easy, doesn't it?

Had Enjoyable Dance

The young people of the Township numbering about one hundred and fifty held their annual holiday dance in "Wildwood Lodge" (the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Skelton on Friday night last. Mr. and Mrs. Nickel furnished the music and a real enjoyable time was spent.

Wellen Mills Busy

H. Corke & Co. Ltd. have secured several large orders which will keep their woollen mills running until early summer. This line industry's past success will be eclipsed in the future if present indications count for anything. More hands are being taken on and preparations made for a big year's business.

Glen Ratepayers Meet

A meeting of the ratepayers was held in the town hall, Glen Williams, on Thursday evening last with Councillor Col. Brown in the chair. Matters pertaining to roads, sidewalks and electric lights were discussed. As regards increased street lighting all that is necessary for the ratepayers to do is to decide how many lights they want and where placed and then make application to Council.

Box Theatre

Friday, Jan 5th—"They Shot They," featuring Lottie Pickford, a drama of love, wit and humor. Sherlock Holmes in "A Scandal in Bohemia." Scenes in Canada.

Saturday, Jan. 6th—"Beyond the Rocks," a Paramount featuring Gloria Swanson and Rudolph Valentino in a gorgeous romance. "Rambling Romeo" an educational comedy. Fox News.

Wednesday, Jan. 10th—"Don't Shook," a western picture of high calibre. Comedy—"Kid Love." "Never Let Go," a two reel short subject.

Coming—"The Old Homestead."

A Beautiful Cantata

The Methodist Church was filled to the doors on Tuesday evening last when the beautiful Christmas Cantata, "Around the Manger," was given by the choir and young people of the church. The Cantata in its four parts, "Waiting for the King," "The Nativity," "Morning Joy," and "The Adoration," relate in a beautiful way the stories in connection with the coming of Christ. All from the choir to the little ones assisting took their parts in a very able way. The tableaux, "The Manger Bed," and "Crown Him," were much appreciated, especially the latter showing the nations of the world, the wise men, the shepherds and the children all bowing in adoration.

Fair-Heppner

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. J. Heppner, Glen Williams, on Friday, Dec. 23rd, when her daughter, Miss T. Farr, son of Rev. W. T. Farr, Rev. J. H. Moore officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of white georgette with trimmings of silver. Her embroidered tulle veil was arranged with orange blossoms and white heather and she carried a bouquet of Killarney roses and lily-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Thompson of Toronto, wore oxbrown canton crepe trimmed with beuna and carried opbellia roses. Ruth Macdonald and Marion Sobek, nieces of the bride, made pretty little flower girls carrying baskets of sweet peas. The groom was attended by Mr. O. M. Taylor of Toronto. Immediately after the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Farr left for a short trip and on their return will reside in Toronto.

Splendid Firemen's Ball

The 50th annual ball of Georgetown Fire Brigade was held in the town hall last Friday evening and proved to be one of the best in the history of the organization. The music was a feature of the evening and was supplied by Down's Orchestra of Brampton; everybody enjoyed it whether dancing or not. The musicians were generous with encores and their courtesy was appreciated by the dancers. The supper provided by Brown's Bakery was away above the ordinary and many complimentary remarks were passed regarding same. Robert McCarty performed the duties of floor manager to the entire satisfaction of all. Chief Tost and his firemen are to be commended for the splendid manner in which they entertained their guests. Old friends present who attended the ball 50 years ago were—Major Grant, Wm. Barclay, Wm. Gamble, John Taylor and James Hickey.

Boy Scouts

Meet at Public School at 8 o'clock. Subjects will be first aid and sailing; all patrol leaders to bring their first aid boxes over again. Everybody come on Friday.

To Water Users

Owing to the continued dry season, town water users are requested to be as careful as possible of the supply and refrain from wasting any. Any person allowing tap to run or in any way wasting water will have their supply shut off. By Order of Waterworks Committee.

The representative of the G.W.P.A. who has been in town soliciting subscriptions for the Veterans, appreciates very much the reception and support given him by our citizens.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.

Wen Prince

At Geolph, Winton Brownridge, of Barrie, showed 16 prizes and won 15 prizes. First out of a possible 31 so won Barber's silver and the most and the exhibit in the fair was very popular. The years of age, won sheep shearing contest, Elton, got second place at Oakville. Mrs. John Barber, wife, made an excellent medicine last September her life. She speaks of her results of lemon juice.