Please Read Carefully All kinds of pipes, cigars, cigarettes and tobaccos, cigarette cases, tobacco pouches, etc. You can buy anything in my store at the most reasonable prices, and satisfaction is assured. Now About Chocolates I would like very much to say a few words to the ladies and gentlemen in connection with the chocolate business. I am really unable to understand how some storekeepers in Georgetown can sell goods at 25c a lb. I know the chocolates which I am buying from Willards and Neilsons cost me nearly 25c per lb plus 11% tax. Therefore I cannot understand why there are some selling at 25c lb. Of course these are chocolates made from molasses, a very cheap grade of confectionery. Then for those demanding a better grade are Neilson's and Willard's Pure Cream Chocolates. I ask the public to take this into consideration. Whenever you go to buy chocolates make them supply you from a box packed by Neilson's or Willard's. YOU'LL BE SATISFIED. The only people selling a cheap line of chocolates are the Greeks, because they are making them from molasses. But if any store-keeper has to buy from Neilson's or Willard's he cannot afford to sell for 25c lb because it costs him 30c plus 11% tax. You will find that I am right.

HIRSCHORN'S Ladies' Wear & Tailoring Special Values for this Week end in all lines of Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments A. HIRSCHORN McElbee Block Georgetown Phone 166

EACH WEEK, a leading Toronto paper carries a full page of advertisements in which Toronto merchants offer for sale by mail special articles such as violins, furs, dress goods, blankets, men's furnishings, etc. It is another attempt to draw money by mail from the small towns to the city. It is another attempt to build up the city at the expense of the small town and the country. And that it will succeed in accomplishing its purpose is a foregone conclusion. There is always the short sighted person who for the sake of a few cents will buy by mail, forgetting that every dollar spent in the home stores means better times for all in the town. To offset this campaign, which the city paper is putting up to increase its own income and the income of its advertisers, the small town merchant must advertise his own wares and his own prices. If the buyer can learn the price while seated in the home, he or she will buy in nine cases out of ten. This is the charm of the city advertisement, you know just exactly how much you have to pay before you make up your mind to make a purchase.

So many roads, so many creeds. So many roads that find and wind While just the art of being kind is all this old world needs. —Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

THE YEAR 1928 has passed into history—an eventful year, with the world slowly recovering from the destructive effects of war and the abnormal conditions caused thereby. The year 1928 opens auspiciously to the optimist, who can see that the worst has been passed and that conditions should show a steady improvement from now on. A revival of industrial activities is generally apparent, and there are indications that a splendid summer of building and new enterprises generally is ahead. Peering ahead through the mists of the unknown, many face the new year with more or less apprehension, but the right spirit is to live by the day, anticipate good things, do all the good we can, think no evil and speak nothing but good, for as Ella Wheeler Wilcox said, "just the art of being kind is all that this old world needs." If we do the best we can, do unto others as we would that they should do unto us, and live by the day, determined to make this one day the best ever, nothing else matters.
