FORGETTING

The hardships which have marked our way.
The sorrows which our souls deplored.
The storms which spoiled the Summer day.
The times our merits were ignored.
O Lord on whom our love is set,
Let us forget, let us forget.
The faults and failures of the past,
The deeds which cannot be undone,
The hindrances before us cast,
The dangers which we failed to shun.
The poisoned snare, the hidden net,
Let us forget, let us forget.
The hurtful things about us said,
The words which caused us grief and loss,
The scenes which filled our hearts with dread,
The promised gold which turned to dross.
Vain would it be for such to fret,
Let us forget, let us forget.
The times when evil forces gained,
What we had won at greatest cost.
The times when loyal hearts were pained,
When hard-won fields again were lost.
The times when we with frowns were met,
Let us forget, let us forget.
The things which hindered our success,
The earliest wishes oft denied—
In view of that toward which we press
These may into oblivion glide:
Since Thou, O Lord, art with us
Let us forget, let us forget.

Obituary

MRS. F. MCKINNEY
Mrs. Frank McKinney, a former resident of Norval and Campbell's Cross section, passed away in Toronto yesterday after a brief illness from pneumonia. Mrs. McKinney was the daughter of a British soldier, John Newton, and was born in Malta sixty-two years ago. As a young girl she came to Norval and resided there for a long time. She later moved to the first line West, Chingawany, one concession across from Victoria, on the farm at present occupied by Robt. Wilson, and resided there for over twenty years. While there she was an active member of the Campbell's Cross Methodist church and highly respected by a large circle of friends. Seven years ago she moved to Toronto and had been living in the city up to her death. She is survived by her husband, but no family. Three brothers and a sister also survive.

Market Crops and Live Stock

According to the Crop Bulletin of the Ontario Department of Agriculture 9,498 acres were devoted to fall wheat in the county of Halton last year. The yield was 249,482 bushels, 26.8 bushels per acre. Only 555 acres of spring wheat were sown, yielding 11,677 bushels per acre. About the same acreage, 9,676, was devoted to mixed grains and yielded 374,461 bushels or 38.7 bushels per acre. The farmers of the county had about 4,000 acres in corn. The corn crop gave 80 bushels in the ear per acre, and ensilage 10, 33 tons per acre. The potato crop took 1,595 acres, and the yield was 174,493 bushels, 108.4 per acre. Turnips occupied 1,049 acres, and the crop was 174,148 bushels, 453 per acre. This county is reported as having 7,488 mares and geldings, 40 stallions, 568 colts and fillies, 53,374 cattle, 13,490 sheep and lambs, 2,071 brood sows, 18,317 other pigs, 8281 turkeys, 7,357 geese, 5,064 ducks, and 145,610 hens and chickens.

The Choice of Friends and Reading

Your family is worth the best you can give it. You desire for their enjoyment the best house, the best food, the best clothes that you can afford. And you are very careful that they cultivate the right kind of friends. But are you just as careful about choosing the right kind of reading? You should be, for reading has a marked influence upon character, especially the reading that comes under the eyes of the young and impressionable. If you choose The Youth's Companion you are giving your family an acquaintance with the best there is in periodical literature. If you see The Companion in a house you may be sure it is a safe family to tie up to—a family worth knowing. Try it for a year and see. All the weekly issues of 1923 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive The Youth's Companion—52, crowded weekly issues; and if requested The Companion Home Calendar for 1923, for only $3.50. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashion. Both publications, only $8.00. The Youth's Companion, Commonwealth Ave. & St. Paul St., Boston, Mass.

Mr. Gregory's New Theatre

John Cameron, architect, has just completed a set of plans and specifications for R. L. Gregory's proposed new motion picture theatre at Oakville. The plan shows a fine brick structure 60 x 110, with commodious entrance, ticket office, waiting and operating rooms, and a store in front. There will be seating accommodation for 500 persons. It will be constructed of brick, concrete and stone, and will be a handsome addition to Oakville's public institutions.

Notes and Comments

BE A GUNFIREMAN at all times and at all places and so live that when the sun goes down each night you can look into the dark and say: I have tried to play the man and I believe this day, which brings me nearer to the grave, also brings me nearer to God.

MONTREAL HAS DISCOVERED some 8,000 bachelors covering the field all over Canada for closer investigation into this class of the community, and inasmuch as such men are well able to contribute to the support of the state, invariably having few home ties or obligations, they should be compelled to bear a good share of the load.

A SUMMUS OF CRITICISM was directed at the annual convention of the Ontario Motor League to the provision in the Motor Vehicle Act which provides that any motorist caught exceeding forty miles an hour shall upon conviction be fined and be liable to imprisonment to any term not exceeding six months, in addition being liable to have his license suspended for one year. Motorists may see something harsh in such a regulation, but they will not get the public to see it. Any motorist rushing around at a rate of speed exceeding 40 miles an hour is a public nuisance, dangerous to everybody, and should be sent to jail and have his license cancelled. Getting off with fines has encouraged too many to think they can break the law with impunity, and now something of a more repressive nature is desirable. No car driver need ever let his fear of going to jail—if he does not drive his car faster than forty miles an hour. Any car driver who drives his car faster than forty miles an hour should go to jail as a warning and so example.

A STORY AND A LESSON is to be derived from an item which appeared the other day, to the effect that Charles Fisher, at the age of seventy-one years, had been sentenced to ten days in the "Tomb" of New York, for having attempted to defraud a street-car company out of a 5c fare. That is the story, but it is not all, and the lesson derivable is that at the age of seventy-one, this man had been for fifty-eight years in the business of forging, of which he was accounted a master-hand and a Y leader in the crooked trade. Here was a man, a master of his art, apparently possessed of a skill that in other directions would have earned him a big salary, hunted all his life and never knowing at what moment the hand of the law would tap him on the shoulder, ending his later-days alone and destitute, having fallen from the height of leader to the indignity of trying to beat his way on a street car. Anyone who has any doubt whatever as to whether crime pays or not, should heed this lesson. Instead of being reprobated to poverty and afraid to look the law in the face, this man, Charles Fisher, had he turned his hand and his talents in the right direction, would to-day in all probability have been a rich man and a respected citizen, ending his days in comfort and security.

THE EDITOR of the Smith Falls News finds himself entirely out of accord with the plan, contemplated by some Toronto churches, of serving coffee and cake during a social hour after the close of the regular church service, and he warns up and delivers thus: "When churches and ministers of the Gospel have to resort to such means to attract young men, and to make them feel that the church has better lock its doors and the preacher take to farming. Religion, we mean church religion, is becoming such a farce that it is hard to find good and true men and women to continue to identify themselves with it. True religion on the teachings of Jesus Christ, cannot be found fault with because of the cowardly hypocrites who pretend to be its exponents and representatives, but the modern church is to be found fault with because it allows hypocrites to control it. Prominence in church work to-day means a ready talker, plenty of wealth, and a fair showing of wealth, if one has those requisites he has no trouble in securing the leading positions in the church. They may be the worst kind of grafters, political tricksters and robbers of the widow and their unsuspecting friends; they may have contributed large sums to the church out of the funds of those who have trusted them with their savings; it makes no difference so long as they put up a respectable front, talk well, and continue to contribute liberally. The observing young men of to-day see all this, they understand it all. True, earnest, simple Gospel preaching and true, as well as trustful men, such officials, will do more to attract young men to the church than all the cake and coffee ever manufactured."

Thirty-three Inches of Snow

According to the records taken at the Ontario Agricultural College the snow-fall in this district this winter up to the end of January, totalled 33 inches, with the most of the beautiful coming down in January, when exactly two feet was recorded. The first snow fall of the winter came on November 22 last, when there was one inch.
