Newspaper Men Meet in Halton

The annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association will be held at Halton this year. This was the decision made at the directors meeting held last Friday at the Prince George Hotel, Toronto. Publishers and proprietors from the Western Provinces will gather at Toronto and proceed from there to the convention city. A tour of the Maritime Provinces is also contemplated. The convention takes place in June.

Prospective Candidates

The Prospective candidates for the coming provincial election—Mayor Irving of Milton, J. A. Willoughby, real estate agent, Georgetown; W. H. Morden, Mayor of Toronto, and an ex-warden of Halton, M. Smith, Burlington, and George Hillier, Beave of Oakville. If the Liberals decide to place a candidate in the field, one of the following strong party men will likely be chosen, Dr. H. A. McCall, Milton, president of the Halton Liberal Association; Duncan Campbell, lumberman of Moffatt; or Charles Beaudin, ex-ward of Nelson township, and an ex-warden of Halton county.

Milton

Dr. R. K. Anderson, M. P., was home from Ottawa for the weekend. He was at the Conservative meeting on Saturday.

J. M. Doney, P.S.I., is out today for the first time after being laid up by an attack of the flu.

E. B. Hutchinson, of the P. L. Robinson Co. Ltd., and Arthur Mayes, turnkey at the jail are among the latest to be attacked.

G. S. Bowes, Milton's oldest man celebrated his 91st birthday last Tuesday. Mr. Bowes has been confined to his bed for some time; the result of his great age, but he was bright and cheerful on Tuesday. He received a great many congratulations.

The annual meeting of the Halton Liberal Association opened in Milton on Thursday and was adjourned on account of the absence through illness of a number of its most prominent members. A new call will be issued in due course.

Fire Saturday Night

The fire alarm sounded about 12:15 on Saturday night for a blaze in the kitchen at the rear of E. C. Creelman's double house on Hill St., occupied by Mr. Corry Harrington. The Brigade arrived in good time and the flames were soon subdued although considerable damage was done by smoke and water. The Misses Smolin and brother who occupy the other half of the house also suffered considerable damage by smoke and water. The firemen deserve credit for their prompt action and the manner in which they worked with the thermometer below zero.
