and Mrs. Frank Holmes, a son.

Died
LITTLE—At River Edge, New Jersey, on Saturday, March 10th, 1923, Elizabeth Smith, widow of the late David Little, in her 79th year.

In Memoriam
KING—His dear and loving father, who passed away on March 12th, 1922.

The worldly ties are broken,
In life we meet no more,
Our hearts are still with you mother,
On yonder distant shore,
It is sweet to find you meet again,
Where sickness is unknown,
And that the one we loved so dear,
Has gone to dwell with God.

The golden gates were opened,
A loving voice said "Come",
And with heavenly music,
She gladly entered home.

Sadly Sorrowed by Daughters and Sons

Homes Sully Berci
By the passing of Mrs. E. Hoff, man and Mrs. F. Lindsay. Requeuing those two of the most highly respected and esteemed citizens and two homes mourn the loss of loving and devoted wives and mothers. During the illness of her father, Mrs. Hoff, and her brother, Mrs. Hoff, went to the home and was with her when she died on Saturday, February 17th.
A day or so later Mrs. Lindsay was herself taken ill. Pneumonia developed and notwithstanding that four doctors were called in, one a pneumonia specialist from Toronto, and the most skillful nursing was given, she gradually gave up her struggle and passed Sunday, March 11th. Her husband and her three daughters and two sons were at her bedside when she passed away.

This was the first break in both these happy families. Mrs. Hoff and Mrs. Lindsay were daughters of the late Richard Graham, and were born on the homestead on the seventh line at Ashgrove. Both were women of very fine character and their great est aim in life was to make their homes real homes over which they presided with grace, love and solidity characteristic of wisely affection and true motherhood.

Mrs. Hoff was a member of the Presbyterian Church in which she was an active worker. She is survived by her husband and one daughter Irene, who have the sympathy of many friends.

Mrs. Lindsay was a member of the Methodist Church and valued its services and its fellowship. Her three daughters are Misses Mae, Jean and Anna, and the two sons Misses and C. Miss Mae is a graduate of McDonald Hall, Guelph, Miss Jean a dental nurse in Toronto, and Miss Anna is a member of the staff of the Ontario Dental College, Toronto. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Lindsay and the bereft family. The funeral which was private, was held Tuesday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Charles Hackett, assisted by Rev. Mr. Davidson of Georgetown and Rev. Mr. Paterson of Norval. The bearers were four brothers, George, B. J., John and William Graham, James R.
Lindsay and H. P. Moore. Interment was made at Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Besides the aged mother of deceased one sister and four brothers remain, viz.—Mrs.
J. E. Haines, Toronto; John H., Requeuing; George W. O., Toronto; Dr. W. J., New York and R. J., Requeuing.

The Value of Good Judgment

You are considering the purchase of a Car.
You are not quite sure of your judgment.
You desire to assay what the judgment of other car buyers has been.
It has been the well-ordered and considered judgment of forty-seven car buyers out of every hundred who have bought cars to buy a Ford.
Of the remaining fifty-three, the highest number who purchased any one make of car was sixteen.
Twenty-seven people will average among them better judgment than sixteen.

And it was the well-ordered and considered judgment of thirty-seven people to buy Ford. Thirty-eight people suffered from Hallux to Vancouver—with the average transportation needs to buy through Ford dealers.

Their judgment was based on—Faster, smoother, more comfortable.
More power, more speed.
More safety, more dependability.
More room, more storage space.
More economy, more value.
More pleasure, more satisfaction.

The Ford of the Twenty-Car is here.
The Ford of the Twenty-Car is here.
The Ford of the Twenty-Car is here.
The Ford of the Twenty-Car is here.

Let it be bought on a monthly payment plan.
