Prison Jail to Work
The number of convicts at Milton jail since Oct. 1st, the beginning of the jail year, is 72, about 60% of them for vagrancy. Governor McGibbon says most of the vagrants are hunky out of men who go to jail rather than work. Many grovel about the work they are ordered to do in the jail, which is not heavy. A short time ago four strong young men refused to go into the jail yard to work, saying it was too fidd. Their strike ended when told that if they did not obey orders they would be sent to Burwash. The prospect was too much for them.

Not Retired

The following appeared in the Toronto Evening Telegram last week: "Dr. Samuel Webster, the veteran sheriff of the County of Halton, has been very ill during the past week at his home in Norval. Dr. Webster, who has been councillor, deputy reeve, reeve and warden of Halton, and counts his friends by the score, has served the county as sheriff for more than eleven years. Although he will celebrate his 81st birthday in June, the doctor is as active as, capable as he was a score of years ago. Consequently, there was strong feeling at the report that he had been deposited, and a new man placed in his office last week. The doctor, who is still at the sanitarium last Monday, as active and capable as usual. He has had no official notice of retirement and there seems to be no foundation for the rumor of his coming resignation."

Miss McMaster's Recital

On Friday evening the pupils of Miss May McMaster gave a varied and interesting program of solos, duets and trios to a large audience in the Baptist Church. Splendid technique and style was noticeable in the young as well as the more advanced pupils. The duets and trios were especially good and all were heartily applauded. At the close of the recital Miss Ethel Marshall on behalf of the pupils presented Miss McMaster with a beautiful bouquet of tulips. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem. The proceeds of the evening were kindly donated to the organ fund of the Church. The following took part in the program—Edith Toft, Isabel, Ruth and Marie Cameron, Will Allan, Irvia Thompson, Ethel Marshall, Kathleen, Evelyn Ashmore, Marie Wheeler, Marjorie Henderson, Sheila Steinhilber, Myrtle Kirby, Ruth Anderson, Edith Godfrey, Edith Francis, Violet Tedder, Harry Lawson, Eva Thompson, Marguerite McMaster, Luella Reid, Jeoff Allen, Lloyd Leslie, Eleanor McDonald, Laura Miller, Jack Crichton, Susie Presswood, Martha Marchment, Bertha Barnes and Jean Thompson. Mr. Irving A. Ritley of Toronto ably assisted with several fine numbers which were well received. Miss Grace Todd of Peterboro was the capable accompanist.
