St. George's Day Tea

A most enjoyable time was spent by the many guests who were in attendance at the Tea on Saturday afternoon in the Public Library, which was given by the Women's Auxiliary of St. George's Church. The tea room, in keeping with the occasion, was tastefully decorated with British flags and bouquets of red roses and tulips adorned the tables, which altogether presented a very pleasing and inviting appearance. The outstanding feature of the afternoon was the singing of Miss Baby Capps of Toronto, who in a charming and graceful manner responded to the repeated encores of a very appreciative audience. During the afternoon Miss Capps was presented with a handsome bouquet of crimson roses, the gift being presented by little Miss Kathleen Mayes.

Spandau Concert

The Concert given in the Methodist Church last evening by the Maple Leaf Quartette of Galt and the Choir was one of the best ever held in Georgetown. The Quartette composed of Howard Haselwood 1st tenor, Earl Hetherington 2nd tenor, Charles McGregor, baritone, L. C. Fleming, basso, and T. M. Aves, pianist, simply delighted the audience with their excellent and varied program of choruses, solos and readings. They were repeatedly encored and cheerfully responded. The numbers by the Choir, under the leadership of Mr. W. E. Ditty, were also well rendered and much appreciated by the large audience present. At the close of the program the Quartette and Choir were entertained by the Methodist ladies to a delicious luncheon served in the basement of the church.

Little-Fraser

An unusually pretty wedding took place at three o'clock on Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fraser, 10 Montclair Ave., Toronto, of Miss Eleanor Fraser to Mr. Frank Hamilton Little, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Little, of Newport, Monmouthshire, England. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Canon Broughall in the big living room, which was decorated with palms and roses. The bride who was given away by her father, looked smart in a gown of white Canton crepe with draped skirt held with pearl buckle. The long sleeved bodice was draped with Maltese lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Elsie and Beatrice Fraser, sisters of the bride, wearing dainty tulle frocks with silver bandeau in their hair, held the white ribbons marking off the aisle for the wedding party. Miss Kathleen Jennings played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register Mrs. W. A. Madden sang "All for You." The bride's table was done with pink and white sweet peas. Mrs. Fraser wore a becoming gown of grey Canton crepe with touches of blue and corsage of roses and violets. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous hearty congratulations and the many beautiful presents bespoke the high esteem in which they are held. Amid showers of confetti Mr. and Mrs. Little left by motor in the evening for their home in Hamilton, the bride travelling in a law suit with hat to match and brown fur.

Concerning the Greatest Picture Ever Made

"The Game of Life" took two years to produce, involving an expenditure of Two Hundred Thousand Pounds, and a cast of 12,000 people, including 800 of His Majesty's Light Cavalrymen who assisted in the staging of "The Charge of the Light Brigade."

Three months ago "The Game of Life" was released in England, shattered all attendance records in London, Liverpool, Manchester, Glasgow and Edinburgh, and eclipsed the performance of "Birth of a Nation," "Hearts of the World," and every big American picture ever produced.
