NO MATTER how active street cleaning departments may be, the thoroughness of a town never look decent unless some spirit of neatness exists in the minds of the citizens. The tendency to litter up streets with paper bags, handbills, scraps of newspapers, etc., seems to be growing worse. Disorderly and littered streets give the impression that a place has no community spirit and is too poor for street cleaning. This affects the minds of all who pass through and makes a place look unattractive to people who might settle here.

The automobile traffic places every town on dress parade. Streets throughout daily are crowded with cars. They put judgment on the town. If it is disorderly, they speculate the story that the town is slack and slovenly. The spring is a time when peculiar care is necessary. Rubbish, dirt, and other refuse and fruit stores are running full blast and many people cast the debris into the gutters. A citizen should be as ashamed to cast refuse into his street as to spit on his parlor rug at home.
