

Notes and Comments.

NEW YORKERS ARE TALKING of getting learned translators together with a view to getting a new Bible together for the use of Christian believers. The limit may come when some revision of the Book of God's Word may be made, but such a revision as Americans would be likely to make from their viewpoint is not the sort that professing Christians would want to allow in their homes. Better leave something that has stood the test of time. If the English of it is not all it should be the world does not care a great deal, and in any event it should not be necessary to inject anything else than grammatical corrections. Why the translators?

MANY AND VARIOUS REASONS are given by judges for increasing the number of marriage dissolutions. Some of those advanced by justices who have heard from two thousand to six thousand divorce cases.

The entrance of women into the fields of commerce, industry and business.

Too much "jazz," too much cabaret and lighted tooting.

The ultra sophistication of the rising generation.

The tendency of young married couples to live with their parents, thus becoming susceptible to their influence.

The failure of the contracting parties to regard properly the solemn bonds of matrimony.

Too little religion in the home.

Poor cooking, resulting from women's desire to have the "home fire" for a business career, and makeshift delicatessen dinners.

Economic marriages, where the husband and wife work, the figures indicate, are a success, as the principal cause of a dissolution of the matrimonial bonds.

BAD NEWS TRAVELS FASTER than good news. There is an old saying, "No news is good news." Let a man be convicted at a church service and there is not much of a stir, but let a resident be convicted of some crime and the news leaps by word of mouth from one end of the community to the other. How thoughtlessly unkind we sometimes are when neighbors of ours suffer misfortune? Troubles are bound to come to us all in some shape or form and what we say about our friends and acquaintances to-day may apply to us to-morrow. News is no respecter of persons. We are prone to consider the ways of others, but our ways, when we are not watching our own steps. What folks say of one another sometimes hurts more than anything they could have done. News, either good or bad, grows and becomes contagious as a disease, and with results. When the news is good it makes no material difference how it is exaggerated or distorted—it can never do anyone positive harm. But bad news, given singly, may bring sorrow and ruin upon people who certainly are not deserving of a punishment beyond the penalty of their mistake. Make charity for others will mean more charity for ourselves and we will not be doing so well a piece of good in reporting something good of some person than something bad. Good is constructive, bad is destructive. Just before you are about to let out a bit of bad news, stop and think a moment. See if you can't think of something good to say in place of it. The chances are ten to one that you can and that you will.

Dr. George Hines, of the Department of Mines, Ottawa, spent the week-end in town at the home of his parents, Martin Street. He has already for Edinboro and Southey, Ont., by way of Muskoka, and will be back in Ottawa on Monday. His party will be engaged this summer.

Dewar, by representatives from Knox Church, Ontario, the Board of Managers and the "Old Society" and friends will see them off at the station. An address of appreciation of the family's services was presented by Mrs. Margaret Dewar, presented Mrs. McGregor, "the silver-haired" of "Tobac," and friends presented Copeland, McGee, with a handsome club bag. Informal.

Clean Up and Paint Up

Honest now, what if it costs $100 spent in painting a house, you do, that gives you quite the satisfaction that a little cleaning-up and painting-up does?

If sure does best the Dutch the way a little paint will make a thing look like a million dollars.

Drop in and let's talk it over.

IF WE ONLY UNDERSTOOD

If we knew the cars and trunks. Knew the effects all in vain. And the better disappointment. Understood the loss and gain. Would the great eternal restlessness. Seem I wonder just the same?

Should we help where now we hinder?

Should we pity where we blame?

Alas we judge each other harshly. Knowing not life's hidden forces. Knowing not the faint of action. Is less turbulent at its source. Seeing not amid the evil.

All the golden grains of good. And we'd lose each other better. If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives. That surround each other's lives. See the naked heart and spirit. Know what and spur the action gives.

Often we would find it better. Have them see we judge we should. We should love each other better. If we only understood.

—Rudyard Kipling.

It is now quite clear that those who were looking to Mr. Fielding for few traits had their hopes disappointed in the bud.

A little printed in 1848 and 100 years old, was discovered in good condition in London. In one respect it resembles a lot of Bibles, heretofore, printed in English, signs of wear and age, not being noticeable owing to distance.
