Correspondence

The Rector of St. Jude's Church, Oakville, has addressed the following letter to Rev. Percival Mayes, rector of St. George's Church, town.

The Rectory,
Oakville, Ontario,
June 2nd, 1928

Dear Mr. Mayes:

It has been brought to my ears that aspersions are being cast by you in your vicinity, upon the character of Mr. George Hillmer, the Conservative Candidate in the forthcoming election.

While I never, as a priest, meddle in politics, I feel that it is my duty to state that I should do what lies in my power to maintain the integrity of one of my very good parishioners. Mr. Hillmer has lived all his life in Oakville and is quite one of its best known and most highly respected citizens. He is a man of temperate and sober habits, a faithful churchman and communicant, and a delegate to the Synod from this parish.

If in any way you can contribute to correcting the false impression which is being circulated I should esteem it a favor.

With kind regards,
I remain,
Faithfully yours,
O. E. RILEY.

Glenwilliams

The Methodists in the Glen are holding an open air concert on Friday evening, June 22nd. Particulars later.

The Orangemen and True Blues will parade to St. Alban's Church on Sunday, June 17th, at 8 p.m. Meet at the town hall at 2:30.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. James Hill who was operated on in Guelph Hospital last Friday is progressing favorably.

Quite a number from here motored to Wood Hill last Monday and witnessed a good game of lacrosse. The Glen were defeated on a score of 11 to 2.

The roads through the Glen are now receiving a coat of gravel.

The children playing on street corners near Wheeler's store are taking considerable risk. Is there no other place for them?

Mr. George Allen had the misfortune to break the rear axle of his auto on top of the school hill, returning from Wood Hill Monday, but no one was hurt.

Two of three of our citizens who were motoring to London over the week end received quite a shaking up, also cuts and bruises on the face, when passing over a bad culvert near Stratford, but were able to proceed after being attended to in the hospital.

Mr. James Benson has added a coat of paint to his house which adds a lot to the appearance of his home, he says he can "paint" as well as shoe horses.

How's This One?
There is a story of a young fellow who married in haste and is repenting at leisure. The other night he went home and raised a row because dinner wasn't half cooked. His better seven nights ripped out: "I'm going back to mother! Nothing seems to please you. If you don't like my style of cooking, why, sir, you must do your own cooking hereafter. You didn't marry a cook." Peace was declared about bedtime. In the small hours of the morning there was a noise downstairs. "Charlie, Charlie," she cried, shaking him out of a deep sleep. "There are burglars in the house! Go down and catch them!" Lazily rolling over, he replied: "Aw, Raby, go down and capture them yourself. You didn't marry no policeman."
