Why Waste Money Daily!

Of all farm machines, the cream separator is the one on which you can take no chances, for the smallest of cream losses soon mount into dollars.

The Melotte has been the farmers' best friend for over 30 years. It is the machine with suspended bowl and enamelled bowl casing. Hanging naturally on a ball-bearing spindle, the bowl is perfectly balanced, and is guaranteed easier to turn and to wear longer than any other.

On account of the recent advance in raw materials, it is impossible to guarantee present low prices for any definite time. Ten-year guarantee with every machine.

Write for free descriptive booklet. Don't delay.

OUR YESTERDAYS

The world moves along with its sorrow and song,
We live in a land of dreams:
The troubles we share disappointments and care,
But quickens the joy it bears.
We list to the rhymes at the thought of old times,
That memory's spell betrays
And on her swift wings comes the maker of things,
The dream of our yesterdays.
It's often the past that we love most at last,
Although it comes back through tears—
The pleasures of now, they're sweeter somehow,
When seen through the glass of years—
The love light of old, like a rainbow of gold,
A picture of youth portrays—
And like some sweet song, we are drifted along,
To dream of our yesterdays.

Limelouse

(Late for last issue.)
Several of the ladies of the Limelouse branch of the Women's Institute attended the general conference of the county held in Stewartstown on Friday. They all report having a very instructive as well as a very enjoyable meeting, although the weather was very warm.

The pie social held here on Friday evening proved to be very successful indeed. The ladies feel that they are well repaid for the efforts they put forth to have everyone enjoy themselves. The programme consisted of nine numbers as follows:—Instrumental by Mr. and Mrs. John Nickell, song by the Limelouse Harmony Glee Club, solo by Mrs. Sam Gibby, reading by Miss W. Irens, duet by Messrs Gowdy and Gibby, reading by Miss L. Nickell, song by the Limelouse Harmony Glee Club, reading by Mr. A. Benton, song (pie episode) by the Glee Club. All the numbers were heartily enjoyed.

Then came the selling of pies which amounted to a goodly sum. This is where the social side of the entertainment came in, when those who bought the pies had to find the lady who made their pies and help her out. That's when we find out who makes good pie. Several visitors from Toronto enjoyed our entertainment also. We are all sorry for the gloom cast over our community by the passing to their rest of two of our highly respected and esteemed citizens in the persons of Mrs. Alice Kennedy and Mr. Gilbert McArthur.

Miss Shepherd of Stratford spent the holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Brown.
Miss Howard is spending the holiday at her home in London.
Miss Winnie Irens spent the week end at her home here.
The youths from the city who were here over the holiday had a real enjoyable time. They held a social service in the community hall on Sunday evening which was enjoyed by many of our people.
The recent rains have improved the crops around this district very much as it was needed badly.

Action

Dr. D. J. Farmer, who is undergoing treatment in the hospital at Hamilton, is in rather a serious condition.
Miss Lottie E. Speight, who has been in Guelph General Hospital for the past month for treatment, returned home on Tuesday. She is considerably improved in health.
Mr. Neil McDonald, Chairman of the Board of Education, has resigned his position as chairman and as a member of the Board.
At a meeting of the Board on Tuesday evening arrangements were made for a nomination to be held next Thursday at noon.
Mr. Chester Flank has the foundations for a new laundry building in rear of the present laundry on Mill Street. When completed the old building will be torn down and a new modern store and offices erected there. This latter building may not be proceeded with until next summer.—Free Press.

Ashgrove

The monthly meeting of the Ashgrove U.F.W.O. club was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Wilson on Thursday afternoon, May 31st. About twenty-five ladies were present. After singing "The Maple Leaf," the ladies were invited to the dining-room where a practical demonstration was given on Wasc-Ever Aluminium, its properties, value and uses, by Messrs Gowdy and Entwistle of the N. A. Aluminium Co. After the demonstration the young men served a substantial luncheon which they had prepared with their Aluminium Equipment during the demonstration. During the luncheon a contest was carried on, the prize, an aluminium dish, being won by Mrs. Jas. Bird. Mr. Gowdy then presented Mrs. Wilson with a beautiful aluminium casserole in appreciation of the enjoyable afternoon spent by all. The meeting was then closed by singing the National Anthem.

Milton

David Scott, formerly of Milton and lately of Florida, is in the U.S. Marine Hospital, Norfolk, Virginia, recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

William Laidlaw, K.C., who died in Toronto, April 29, left his estate, consisting of $70,718 in real and personal property, to his wife, Mrs. Frances L. K. Laidlaw, 49 Queen's Park, and named her sole executrix, in his will, made on Nov. 1st last.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fleming came from Hamilton last Monday to spend the bank holiday with friends. At the home of Mrs. J. Alexander Mrs. Fleming was sitting in a rocking chair in the porch. Getting up by the edge of the floor it overturned and one of Mrs. Fleming's arms was broken between the elbow and shoulder.

After disposing of all other business in a meeting of the council adjourned at 8.30 p.m., on Tuesday to meet again at 7.30 to equalize the assessment. The clerks of all the municipalities had sent in assessment rolls, but two of them were those of 1922 instead of 1923, the proper year. Therefore nothing could be done and an adjournment was made to next Tuesday evening.—Champion.

Provincial Legislature

At dissolution in 1919 the party standing in the Legislature was Conservatives, 77; Liberals, 80; U.F.O., 2; vacant seats, 2. After the memorable October 30 election in 1919 the party standing was Conservatives, 55; Liberals, 80; U.F.O., 48; Labor, 12; Independents, 1.

At dissolution the party standing was U.F.O., 48; Labor supporting U.F.O., 12; Liberals, 5; Conservatives, 35; Liberals, 35 and one seat, Lennox, vacant, through the death of R. A. Fowler (Conservative). This does not take into account the Speaker, Mr. Fairbank, who is holding re-election as a Liberal; Mr. Casselman (U.F.O., Dundas) is classed as an Independent.

Two important by-elections occurred during the past four years both of them losses to the Liberals. The death of John O'Neill, Toronto, left a vacant place being captured by Col. J. A. Currie, Conservative; and in North Oxford, the constituency which elected J. A. Currie, U.F.O. last December won by a majority of 1,808.

In the 1919 contest the Conservatives received 891,278 votes, the Liberals, 835,560; U.F.O., 1,247, 181,894; Independents, 68,868 a total vote of 1,170,669.

Who May Vote

The present law allows the vote to every man or woman who has attained the age of 21 years at the time of voting, provided such person is a British subject. Each qualified voter must have been a resident in Canada for at least a year prior to polling, and for a period of three months in the electoral district, or in case of a city divided into two or more constituencies, a resident in the city for three months. In unorganized districts the voter must have been living in Ontario for a year, and at the time of polling be domiciled in the electoral district. Provision is made whereby persons who have moved from one electoral district to another may obtain a certificate from the revising officer which will enable them to poll their votes in the new riding. But your name must be on the voters' list.

Brampton's New School

At a special meeting of Brampton Public School Board last week the contract for the new school in the south ward was awarded to Messrs Hopton & Smith of Hamilton. This firm handles the entire contract with the exception of the plumbing and heating, which has been given to Messrs Higgins & Large of Brampton. The entire cost of the new school is to be $75,918.25, which includes the plumbing and heating.

Prohibition has come to stay, without a doubt, but the abnormal demand for yeast cakes these days is evidence of the fact that the general public is taking precautions to prevent any drought.

Notes and Comments.

COMMUNITIES show in proportion to the support given them by their residents. You cannot boast Georgetown by trading elsewhere or placing business in other localities that could be placed at home. Folks who try to save pennies offend themselves. The home merchant is generally honest and offers honest values for your money. He can't afford to be otherwise. He depends for his living from the community and must give the community what it wants at a fair price: When you are tempted to trade outside and purchase "just as good merchandise at greatly reduced prices," you should think twice before buying. Getting on the edge of a merchant he will not doubt be glad to make an adjustment. The out-of-town merchant is not personally interested in you. He is intent on selling you this once and probably does not expect to sell you again. He does not have to take great care in preserving your good will. More than owing it to your community to trade at home, thus keeping your money at home, you proper year. Therefore nothing could be done and an adjournment was made to next Tuesday evening.—Champion.

ALL REPORTS AGREE that the Canadian who a few weeks ago were trekking across the American border in search of pleasanter pastures are now returning, sadly disillusioned and many of them to find that their jobs have been filled in the meantime. With experience and some work they will realize hereafter that a bird in hand is worth two in the bush. Some of these people can relate a story of their career over the line that may influence others. It is true that employment is easy in Detroit at present and that wages in the automobile factories are fairly good. But a family of moderate size in the Michigan city says goodbye to seven or eight dollars bills each month to obtain living accommodation, and such is by no means in a desirable locality. Otherwise the workman must reside ten or twelve miles from his job and spend a couple of hours going and a similar time returning amid the joys of a crash on the street cars. Taking one thing with another Ontario is not such a bad place after all, which many of the people who have tried their fortune in the Michigan centers are beginning to appreciate.

WHAT YOU ARE is so much greater than what you do. The spirit in which you work, the plan that you keep looking within your heart, the love of beautiful things, the touch of wealth which you place in those in whom you believe, and who are dear to you in return—do not these things enrich life? You work and earn a sum of money. You buy with that money a beautiful gem, or a painting of some lovely work of art. But it wasn't the money, after all, that did that buying. It was your love of the beautiful. The one great curse of life is mediocrity. To desire nothing beyond the ordinary, to be satisfied to float with the stream, to sit or walk or even work in part, illness and not to strive continually for something better and something higher and happier, is to drop partly out of life itself. The life you live is your idea of beauty, the world, and your estimate of human character. Never have "nothing to do." Keep planning ahead and keep living ahead. What you do right now is a spark of the bigger thing that you shall do to-morrow.

IT IS A FINE THING for young people to get started right in the matter of life's activities. "Pay as you go," is a motto that should, of course, be applied to financial obligations; but it should also be applied to numerous other obligations. Pay your board bill; and your doctor's bill when they are due; but when you have done this, you have done much less than enough. Pay that debt of gratitude as you go. Don't wait until that public school teacher, or that high school teacher, or that employer who interested himself in your progress when you were an apprentice, is translated to the other land, before you acknowledge your debt. Pay as you go. Get your gratitude off your mind as soon as you feel it. The helplessness you have received is an obligation you should recognize. Some are planning to endow hospitals, or put pipe organs in churches. But that is not the idea. Pay as you go. Say a kind word to the errand boy when you meet him. Help some one who is tired or discouraged. Cheer the down-hearted. If you leave your debt of helpfulness to be paid when you are old, you can no more do it than you can pay Canada's war debt. Pay as you go.

Along with the garden stuff and other things that the recent rains materially helped to notice the mosquito appears to have arrived exceedingly and abundantly.

It is related that the average motorist has a drive to pick flowers, he must be on the go. Neither has the time to pick up ticks, but we notice he occasionally does so and wastes a lot of time identifying them.
