Recommended Subways
The coroner's jury called to investigate the death of the late Walter Lawson Sr., of Stewartstown, killed by a Canadian National passenger train on the seventh line crossing on July 16, gave its verdict. The finding was accidental. The jury recommended that as there had been five accidents at the crossing, which is a high one, a subway should be constructed there.

Bronze to Acton Highway

Asking that the highway between Bronson and Acton be raised from a county to a Provincial highway, a deputation of fifteen from Halton county, including Council representatives, waited upon Hon. G. S. Henry, Minister of Highways, Monday. The Minister promised consideration. In requesting that the roadway be changed from a 40 to a 60 per cent. road the deputation pointed out the increasing traffic, which, they informed the Minister, was increasingly non-local.

Canada's Favorite Author

A short historical sketch of Mr. W. A. Fraser, Canada's popular author and short story writer, appeared in the Toronto Daily Star of last Saturday. The Saturday Evening Post has been running a series of short stories on "Animals I have known in the Jungle" by Mr. Fraser which are being widely read and most favorably commented on. There is a distinct originality about Fraser's stories that makes you like them and they are becoming popular the world over. Mr. and Mrs. Fraser have numerous friends in Georgetown where they resided for a number of years.

Armenian Relief Association

A public meeting in the interest of the Armenian Relief Association was held in the town hall last evening. There was a good attendance of citizens who listened to an address by Rev. Dr. Vinning in which he described the awful conditions existing in Armenia and made a strong appeal for assistance in an effort to save as many as possible of the 250,000 orphans, now in that country. About fifty boys from the Armenian Farms were present and sang a couple of patriotic songs during the evening. An organization in town is being formed to assist the Armenian Relief. Prof. Hutt was chairman of the evening.

Glenwilliams

At Alexander Norton's funeral last week the school children attended in a body, accompanied by their teachers: it was a very impressive scene. Among the beautiful floral tributes were a wreath from 'Provincial Coasting Mills, spray from Public School junior room, anchor from Public School senior room, and numerous other flowers from citizens and friends. Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mrs. J. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. R. Swan of Toronto.
CALL OF THANKS—We hereby convey to friends and neighbors, especially McKinley Bros., our very sincere thanks for their many kindnesses and sympathy extended to us in our sad bereavement, by the death of our beloved son, Alexander—Mr. and Mrs. James Norton.
The Harvest Home services at the Methodist Church last Sunday were largely attended both morning and evening. The interior of the church never looked prettier and the ladies are being complimented on their decorations. The soup and supper on Monday evening proved a pleasant affair. Mr. Byerson Douglas sang solos and rendered dedications. Miss Martha Marchmont and Miss Babe Mullin contributed instrumentals and a quartet composed of Mrs. W. Schenk, Mrs. Marchmont, Mr. E. Hinds and Mr. T. Roberts rendered selections, all of which were enjoyed.
Will the party who took a camera out of a car in the Methodist church grounds last Sunday evening, kindly return same to Wheeler's store and save farther trouble.
Mrs. Ed. Benson had the misfortune to lose her foot one of her fingers while at work one day last week.
