In Memoriam
BLAIR—In proud and loving memory of Sgt. James Blair killed in action Sept. 29th, 1918 and of William Blair, who died Oct. 9th, 1918. God called our loved ones but we have not what He hath given. They live on earth in thought and deed as truly as in Heaven. Ever remembered by Father, Mother and Sisters.

Limehouse

Very successful anniversary services were conducted by the Rev. Walter Patterson of Norval assisted by the members of Knox church choir, Georgetown, at the Presbyterian church, 6th line, Limehouse. The church was filled to capacity both morning and evening and great credit is due Mr. Patterson for the able addresses presented at both services. Knox choir excelled themselves and all enjoyed the beautiful anthems—rended a fine spirit of brotherly love was shown by the hearty way in which all joined to make this year's anniversary one of the best. Limehouse Presbyterian Church lady members are known far and wide when it comes to tea meetings. Monday evening's entertainment bore this out. An excellent program was given by the following talent: Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. Col. Brown, Mr. Dilly, Mr. Hale, and last but not least, the Harry Lauder of Georgetown, Master Charlie Scrymgeour, who acted the part well. Mrs. Henderson acted as accompanist. Rev. Mr. Cameron acted as chairman and after the program he invited all to remain and enjoy the hospitality of the ladies. A vote of thanks was moved to all those who took part and helped in making the tea-meeting a success.

A Record Fair

Esqueing Agricultural Society Favoured with Good Weather and A Record Crowd

The 77th Annual Fall Fair of Esqueing Agricultural Society held at Georgetown last Friday and Saturday proved a record breaker as predicted by the Herald. The weather was favourable and the exhibit of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, etc. was away above the average, while the attendance was the largest in the history of the show.

In the hall there was a splendid exhibit of farm and garden produce such as grain, roots, vegetables, fruit, dairy products and dressed fowl. The display of fancy work, fine arts and flowers was also superior to other years, while the better canned fruit, etc. was much better than usual.

Most credit is due the Glen Wooten Mills for their excellent display of woolen goods consisting of blankets and other lines manufactured by this well known firm. Their exhibit was much admired.

The Georgetown Lumber Co.'s splendid display of doors, sash, panels and interior house trimmings attracted many who contemplated building or remodeling their homes.

Norman H. Speight's exhibit of pianos, phonographs, electrical goods, etc. proved quite an attraction to many. Mr. Speight handled some of the best musical instruments on the market.

The exhibit of children's wagons, kiddy cars, wheelbarrows, sleighs, etc. were quite a drawing card, especially for the children.

Correspondence

The following letter was handed to us by J. A. Tracy, Secretary of the Esqueing Agricultural Society, written to his father, the first Secretary, Treasurer of the Society which he helped to organize in 1847.

Hamilton, Feb. 10th, 1853. Richard Tracy Esq., Treas. Esqueing Agr. Society. Dear Sir: Enclosed you have a cheque for twenty one pounds 11 10 say 21 pounds, 11 shillings, 10 pence being with 35 pounds remitted in October the amount to be paid to the Esqueing Agricultural Society by the Esqueing Society for the year 1852. I could not have answered your last letter in time for your meeting and I only had my bank book made up on Friday last, otherwise I should have sent the enclosed before. Our annual meeting has been this day postponed to the 23rd instant, at which time I hope to receive your report. I remain, Yours truly, James Wooten, Treasurer.

Norval

Work on the Provincial Highway is progressing and we hope before long our bridges will be completed.
