GEORGETOWN ONT.

Terra Cotta

On Saturday evening a large number from here and the surrounding vicinity gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Parr and presented Mr. Parr with a beautiful upholstered couch and Mrs. Parr with a wall filled purse, as a slight token of the high esteem in which they were held in the community. The following suitable address was read by Mr. J. Coulter while Mr. Ed. Townsend very ably filled the position of chairman.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Parr: We who have gathered here this evening find it very hard to realize that we are meeting to take leave of those whose lives have been bound up with the life of the village for more than a half century. Terra Cotta, without Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Parr will be a very strange place to be, the younger and older generation. There is nothing in the life of the village with which we do not associate you. You have both been the best of friends and neighbors ready at any time and under any circumstances to lend a helping hand, to give advice, comfort and encouragement. In the church you especially, Mrs. Parr, have been one of our standbys—your happiest moments seemed to be those in which you were rendering some service to the Lord or to His house. Your kindly spirit, your generous attitude towards everyone, your charity of mind and deeds have endeared you to us very greatly. When you have gone from our midst to your new home we shall have a beautiful memory of the lives you have lived in Terra Cotta and we want you to take with you a reminder of the people among whom so many years of your lives have been spent. We hope that you will use to such advantage as to get the greatest benefit from our gift, which is offered with love and deep regret. You may rest assured that as you settle in that
