MRS. (REV.) T. W. JEFFERIS last spring, took place at the home tune through a misstep to have a of her daughter in Toronto last painful fall. In stepping from the Wednesday. Although the decessed was about 87 years of age, she and struck a nail keg. Two ribs was remarkably active until about a month ago, when her health be gan to fail. She was the second Press. wife of the late Bev. Mr. Jefferis, who passed away last spring at the age of one hundred years, one month and one day. Many of our readers will remember the cepten ary reception held in the Methodist Church on the evening of Feb ruary 15th last, and how happy Mrs. Jefferis was in serving to everyone in the large andience a piece of a birthday cake, which she had made in honor of her aged and highly respected husband. The remains were taken to Osk ville and the funeral was held on Saturday afternoon with interment in St. Jude's Cemetery.
