In Memoriam

ARMSTRONG—In sad and loving memory of Thomas Armstrong who departed this life Dec. 26th 1919. The sweet to know we will meet again, where parting is no more, And our dear one we loved so well has only gone before. God knows how much we miss him; He counts the tears we shed, And whispers, "Hush, he only sleeps, your dear one is not dead. Some day some true eye shall see the face we loved so well. Some day, some time, our hands shall clasp and never say farewell. Daily missed by wife and family.

ARMSTRONG—In sad and loving memory of my dear friend, Thomas Armstrong, who departed this life Dec. 26th 1919. We loved him, yet we loved him, He loved his home more— And he has sweetly called him, To yonder shining shore. Sadly missed by little Jack.

Municipal Nominations

will take place on Monday Dec. 31st, and the elections on Monday Jan. 7th. In Town the nomination meeting will be held at 10 a.m. and in the Township at 1 p.m. We understand there will be some vacancies in our town council as some of its members have signified their intention to retire from municipal life. There will be three members to elect on the Public School Board and one Hydro Commissioner. In Enniskillen Township it looks very much as if the members of 1928 Council would be returned by acclamation.

Obituary

ANNA C. LAIDLAW

The funeral of the late Miss Anna C. Laidlaw, A.T.G.M., of Hamilton, only daughter of the late Rev. R. J. Laidlaw, LL.D., took place on Saturday, December 15th, a largely attended service being held at the residence of her aunt, Miss C. McCall, before interment of the remains in the family plot at Greenwood Cemetery. News of the untimely death after an acute illness of but a few days' duration, came as a shock to Miss Laidlaw's large circle of friends, many of whom came from a distance to attend her obsequies in token of their affection and esteem for one whose life was marked by the possession of rare talents, a singular brightness of disposition, and devout Christian character. A profusion of floral offerings from far and near bore added testimony to the place which this estimable lady had won in the hearts of all with whom she had been associated. Early in life Miss Laidlaw had given promise of a brilliant career as a musician, graduating as a medalist from both the Hamilton Ladies' College and the Toronto Conservatory of Music. Latterly she was a most prominent member of her profession in Hamilton where, for the past twenty years, she was a leader on the staff of the Conservatory. Feeling reference was made to the outstanding nature of Miss Laidlaw's many gifts and graces by Rev. Dr. A. T. Drummond of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, who, assisted by Rev. Dr. John McCall of Georgetown, uncle of the deceased, conducted the funeral service.

The pall bearers were—Mr. McCullough, President and Dr. Hewlett, Musical Director of the Hamilton Conservatory of Music; Mr. Robt. Morgan, Hamilton; and the brothers of the deceased, Dr. Hugh and Dr. Campbell Laidlaw of Ottawa, and Mr. Robertson Laidlaw of St. Andrew's College, Toronto. Others present were—Robert Laidlaw, Esq. and the Misses Laidlaw, Mrs. W. G. Wallace, Mrs. Wesley Hill, and Miss Nelson of Toronto; Mr. J. J. Morrison and Mr. Bidwell May, Hamilton; Miss Mary Laidlaw, Guelph; Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Laidlaw, Milton; and Mrs. Walter Elliott, Milton, and many relatives and friends from Georgetown and vicinity.—Com.

The Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Leslie, Norval, was the scene on Monday afternoon, Dec. 17th, of one of those happy occasions that light up the declining years of father and mother, and bind still more firmly the bonds between them and their children. It was the golden wedding anniversary of the worthy couple, both of them natives of the west side of Peel, and well known and highly respected residents for many years of Union neighborhood. The occasion was marked by a gathering of some sixty relatives, all of whom showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Leslie congratulations that they should have come so far together on life's pathway, and good wishes for the future, which they pray will long extend. In honor of the day two little grandchildren, Margaret Leslie and Howard Dolson, presented the celebrants with a bag of gold specks, while the grandchildren gave a beautiful bouquet of flowers appropriately tinted in gold. St. Strat Leslie read an address, in which he expressed his brother's and sisters the best wishes that can be uttered by a circle of dutiful children. Nothing could have been more appropriate than the congratulations which came from the elders and managers of Union Church, which Mr. and Mrs. Leslie were associated for many years, and in which the former has held responsible offices, as well as being connected with the church throughout his entire life. Congratulations were also received from Mrs. Taylor, Sr., and from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor, associated in church work as well as in social life with the happy couple. Mr. Leslie was born 78 years ago on the fifth line west Chinguacousy, on the farm on which his son George is now located. His father was one of the pioneers, and Mr. Leslie himself recalls many incidents connected with the primitive life of the early settlers. Mrs. Leslie was born on the 4th line west, Chinguacousy, on the site of the Inter-provincial Brickyard, her father being John Lyons, one of the pioneers of that section. The marriage of 50 years ago was performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Mr. Alexander, who has since passed away. Of the two bridesmaids of that day, one is still living, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, sister of the bride, and was a guest at the anniversary celebration. The two groomsmen were also present at the celebration, Dr. John Leslie of Erin and Henry Reid of Georgetown, and joined with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie in many happy reminiscences. Six children were present on this happy day, Thomas, who came down from Alberta, George and Storratt, Mrs. Will Lyons, Mrs. Albert Dolson and Mrs. Edward Cason, all of whom, with the one exception, residing very close to their parents. A large number of the eighteen grandchildren were also present, and made the day a very delightful one for their aged relatives. Flowers, lights and decorations reflected the thought of the anniversary, golden chrysanthemums in large quantities being seen everywhere. The bride received the guests in black and red, with a corsage bouquet of sunset roses. At the supper with which the festivities concluded, all dresses were made by the sons, the sons in law, Rev. Walter Patterson, Mrs. James Lyons, Brantford, Fred Thompson and T. L. Leslie of Union. The large party included guests from Alberta, Toronto, Erin, Brantford, Georgetown, Cheltenham, Hagersville. One Taken a Deep Breath The corrected prices in F. Rogers & Co's coal advertisement on page 3 of this issue. Normal Institute Normal branch of the Women's Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Patterson on Thursday, Jan. 3rd, at 8.30 p.m. An interesting program will be given, also report of convention held in Toronto. Music refreshments. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
