Norval

Last Subbath was Anniversary Day in Norval Presbyterian Church when a goodly assemblage waited on the messages given by the Rev Thomas Anderson Rodger of John's-Toronto. The weather was unfavourable to a large attendance either morning or evening never theless the members and old friends of the congregation rallied in large numbers and the building was comfortably filled at both serrices. -Mr. Rodger took his-text in the morning from from 2. Cor. VI : 18, and spoke on the meres sity of separation on the part of God's paople from the world. He strongly deprecated the tendency to pleasure on the part of the people of the present age and urged with much force and earn estned that these who were God's n should seek to find their od pleasures in fellowship & with Phrist. In the evening his & subject was "The Greatest Sin, of

With much ability and stroparguments he showed the sinful. ness of unbelief in a cleat light exposing its ugliness . . besought his bearers to honor. God by believing Him. Hi addresses made a deep impre-ton on his audience and he reprived at the close the thanks of many for his helpful and ses Sing words.

The choir, largely attended, was under the able leadership of Mr. E. M. Ellis of Brampton. Solos, 2 duetts, and quartettes were sung during the course of the evening, and where all were good it would be difficult to single out individuals for praise. The general feeling was that the services were good, strengthening and stimulative and S it is hoped that at a future date & the congregation may have the pleasure of welcoming Mr. Rodger back again. The tea-meeting on Monday evening was a buge success. The Methodist Anniversary Services will be held next Sabbath at 11 a.m. and 7.80 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Gray of St. Paul's Church. Brampton, will be the special preacher of the day. The choir are busy preparing special music for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brows of Georgetown have recently removed to Norval where Mr. Brown will carry on a garage business. -We understand that the Georgetown Lumber Company have re deived the contract from the gov. Phones: Shop 196 House 2351
