Mighty Welcome Visitor. Mr. Percy E. Reed, Dairy Commissioner of Regina, formerly of Georgetown, is renewing his subscription writes the Herald as follows: "The Herald is a mighty welcome weekly visitor and certainly does a great deal to keep us in touch with the old home town and community. There are going very well with the West and with Regina, though of course both are booming at an great rate during the last couple of years which is perhaps better for the country as we shall probably be on a firmer foundation by building up steadily. We are all very well at home and have had a delightful winter this year from the standpoint of both weather and health."

Have Your Eyes Examined. O. T. Walker, Eye-sight Specialist, will be at Watson's Drug Store on Wednesday, February 27th. Make an appointment.
