Died

GUTHRIE—At her late residence, 117 Langley Avenue, Toronto, Sunday, March 2nd 1924 Henrietta O. Millar widow of the late Thomas A. Guthrie and sister of W. A. Millar Georgetown.

Limehouse

A very interesting and pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. W. Wright on the evening of February 26th, when the Women's Institute, neighbors and friends met to spend a short time with the family before their departure to their new home. The evening was spent in music, singing, speaking, games and dancing.

Mrs. R. L. Brown very ably filled the position of chairman. Speeches were made by Mr. G. H. Jolley and Mr. Robt. Doughty. Mr. Nickell, Mr. Gowdy and Miss Tarzwell sang songs which were very much appreciated. Mrs. Jno. Newton, President of the W. I., added her part in a very fine instrumental on the piano. After the programme Mrs. Wm. Wright was called to the chair and the following address was read by Mrs. R. L. Brown and the presentation made by Mrs. J. Newton.

Mrs. Wm. Wright.

Dear Friend:—We, your neighbors and friends and members of the Women's Institute, have met together to night to spend a social hour with you and Mr. Wright and family before you leave our neighborhood to go to your new home. Words cannot tell how we will miss you in our meetings, where you were so helpful as first Vice-President, with a lively spirit full of good suggestions and always trying to keep our motto, "For Home and Country" ever in mind and waving high, and helping someone over rough places and making life more pleasant for them.

We, the members of the Women's Institute, felt that we could not let you go from our midst without some little remembrance of us.

We would ask you to accept this serving tray, a slight token of our esteem for you. I am sure each and every voice here will wish you many years of happiness, prosperity and peace where ever you may be. We will welcome you back whenever you can come. Ever yours with all kind wishes.

—W. I., Neighbors and Friends

Mrs. Wright, in a few well chosen words, thanked the ladies for the handsome serving tray.

Mrs. Stewart Wright was then called to the chair and Mrs. R. L. Brown read the following address and Mrs. Jno. Newton made the presentation.

Mrs. Stewart Wright.

Dear Friend:—The members of the Women's Institute regret that you are so soon to leave us. We are sorry to lose our first and second Vice President. I am sure our President, Mrs. J. Newton, feels that her props are taken from her. But we have to think of it in this way that what is our loss is some other people's gain.

Your stay with us has not been as long as your sister's but we have learned to appreciate you and each one fills her own place. We remember when you came as a girl on a visit and then you changed your name and came as a bride to brighten the cottage in the lane. Now we would ask you to accept this serving tray as a slight token of remembrance of the W. I. of Limehouse. We all wish you many happy and prosperous years. Good-bye. Come again.—Your friends of Limehouse.

Mrs. Wright replied thanking the ladies for their gift of a handsome mahogany serving tray.

While a tasty lunch was being prepared a flower romance contest was conducted. The prize was won by Miss Helen Wright, the eldest daughter of the house. The large gathering dispersed well pleased with their evening's enjoyment and wishing the Wright families every prosperity in their new homes.

A number from here took in the concert at Union and report a good time.

The ice harvest is in full swing now and Mr. George Edge and T. Webster are busy on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Picott of Cheltenham have moved to Terra Cotta station and are looking after the business at the station.

Clancy Bros. are shipping wood from here at present.

Our pastor the Rev. Mr. Douglas is drawing big crowds now and his earnest sermons are highly appreciated.

Terra Cotta expects to have electric light from the Cataract this summer. Cheltenham is making preparations for it now.

Communications were read from Lady Aberdeen, president International Council of Women, relative to conference for prevention of war, also from the Provincial Council re sundry matters to come before the Legislature.

"Price Class"
The mysterious stranger in the motor industry

Does a difference in price indicate a difference in quality? Why is one car priced 25% to 50% higher than another of the same quality? The 4 questions that a buyer should ask when considering any car

HERE are facts based on world's engineering authority. If you have any intention of buying an automobile, you are urged to read them.

No "Price Class"

There are only two kinds of automobiles today. Economically produced cars which give you more for your money. And cars which are not, and give you less.

Hence two cars may show a price difference of $400 to $1,200 and more. And be of the same quality.

Where the difference comes in

Studebaker, producing 150,000 cars yearly, has reduced engineering cost to $3.33 per car.

Other fixed overheads have been reduced proportionately. And these influence Studebaker prices.

* * *

A set of body dies costs $100,000. It will produce many thousand sets of body stampings, each one as perfect as though there were only a dozen made.

By building 50,000 bodies from a single set of dies, Studebaker reduces the die cost per body to only $2.00.

The average small manufacturer has to charge each body $20 for die cost. The difference of $18 is in the price but not in the body.

Thus a car priced at $1,700 to $1,950 can be sold as low as $1,465 when produced economically in quantity. Such a car is the Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car, priced at $1,465. A clear difference of between $235 to $485.

Equalled only by costliest foreign and American makes

Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

We subject Studebaker cars to 30,000 inspections. That requires 1,200 men.

No finer car can be built than the Studebaker of today.

See a Studebaker—then decide

Buy no car until you've seen a Studebaker. Go over it, point for point. And you will own a Studebaker.

Get an answer to these 4 questions before buying any car

1—Is this an assembled car? Or "partly" assembled. Insist on this answer. Assembled cars pay a profit to from 75 to 100 parts makers alone.

2—What sort of bearings? Studebakers are Timken-equipped. Everlasting smoothness and quiet performance result.

3—How many cars a year does this maker produce? Small productions mean either a higher price or cheaper car.

4—What sort of upholstery? Studebaker closed models are done in Chase Mohair, the finest material for this purpose known. Open models are upholstered in genuine leather.

Why Studebaker excels the world in body building

For 72 years Studebaker has been a builder of quality vehicles.

In the modern $10,000,000 Studebaker body plants, there are sons and fathers and grandfathers working side by side. Their religion is fine coach building. And this is reflected in their work.

As fine body builders, Studebaker stands supreme.
