At the conclusion of their practice at the Methodist Church last Thursday evening, Mrs. Rennie, a valued member of the choir who is leaving for a holiday in Scotland, was presented with a box of beautiful silk handkerchiefs. A short musical program followed after which refreshments were served and best wishes for a pleasant holiday and safe return were extended to Mrs. Rennie. A Splendid Concert. The concert held in the Baptist church last Thursday evening was well attended and pronounced by those present one of the best held in town for a long time. The program was given by Herbert W. Piorey, dramatic story reciter; Ernest A. Warren, tenor; R. S. Wilkinson, baritone, and Miss May McMaster, pianist. All were repeatedly applauded and very graciously responded. Principal Appointed. The Anglican Young People expelled themselves to their latest production "The Private Secretary" which they played to large audiences in the town hall last Thursday and Friday evenings. The characters represented were well played by the young artists who very ably demonstrated their ability as actors and put on a play that not only did credit to themselves but delighted their hundreds of patrons. There were lots of laughs for everybody and each scene was a hearty and pleasing from the large gathering. The violin solos between acts by Jack Thompson were, as always, much appreciated and applauded. A pleasing feature during the evening was the presentation by Mr. Mayne on behalf of the cast of a beautiful bouquet of carnations to Miss Person, the talented directress of the play. Those composing the cast were: Arthur Norrington, Dick Roe, Bert Thompson, Bob York, Ernest Barker, Otes. Joe, Chas. Lunn, Hattie Orr, Jean Thompson, Mrs. B. M. Orr, Joan Annandale; Mrs. Annandale, accompanist. Farewell Dance. On Friday evening at the conclusion of the presentation of "The Private Secretary" ninety young people, invited by the cast, repaired to the Arena to a farewell dance given for Miss Joan Annandale, who, to the regret of everyone, is leaving town to reside at St. Andrews East, Quebec. Miss Annandale will be greatly missed by the young people of St. George's Church, she having been a valued member of the company who have presented two very successful plays recently. At 12.45 all sat down to a beautiful supper where mirth and hilarity ran high, and at the conclusion Mr. Bert Thompson voiced the feelings of all present, when he expressed regret at Miss Annandale's departure and wished her every happiness in her new home. On behalf of the cast he then presented her with a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair ferns. Miss Annandale feelingly replied. After giving three hearty cheers for the guest of honor and her mother, all returned to the dancing hall where, to the inspiring music of E. Johnson of Toronto, the rest of the evening passed happily away leaving nothing but the most pleasant memories behind.—Com.

Radio Obit on 92nd Birthday. Friends to the number of 50 were present last Monday afternoon at the birthday party tendered to Mrs. Elizabeth Henry, Choltenham, the oldest citizen of the village, and one who has lived nearly all her life in this district. A birthday cake with the figures 92 occupied the center of the decorated table. The house was decorated with red roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Henry was presented with a purse of money, to be expended on a radio set, by Mrs. R. Seggerth of Brampton, who also presented Mrs. Henry with a beautiful gift of a silver watch. Mrs. J. Oakville Bridge Soon Open. Oakville is now daily expecting an announcement about the famous highway bridge over Sixteen Mile Creek. It seems certain now that the condition of the structure, which exhibited ominous cracks shortly after its completion, is not as serious as at first believed, and it is expected that in a short time announcement of the date of its opening to traffic will be made. It was authoritatively stated today that the opening would not be long delayed, and that, little more than the actual preparation of the approaches was necessary to permit traffic to use the bridge. Until the date of opening, however, traffic along the Toronto Hamilton highway must still make use of the detour down to the floor of the valley.
