- Asharove The Ashgrove U. and U.F.W.O. clubs held their pion on June 18, 8 at the Optario Agricultural College. The Semi-Centennial Celebration of the College extended invitations to the farmers of various counties for that day and thousands were there to enjoy the various demonstrations, parades, sports, etc. that were provided for their entertain ment. It was a day full of eightsceing of interest and education to all. Dinner was served to all in the gymnasium, and the members All Kinds of Feed of the Ashgrove Clubs gathered on the campus and cujoyed the contents of their lunch baskets in the evening before leaving for their motor ride home.

The regular monthly meeting of he same clubs was beld at the home of Mr. Jas. Bird on Thurs day evening June 19th, when most of the members were present. Rontine business matters were dispensed with as Mr. Marshall Camp-bell, Milton, County Director of the U.F.O. was present and delight. ed the gathering with bis splendid address. Those present all pronounced this as one of the most successful meetings of the year.

At the close of the address the hosters, served a dainty lunch.

Burglar Captured

Attempt to Blow Creamery Safe Frustrated by Prompt Action of John and Albert Balley

On Tuesday night last burglars broke into Bailey Bros.' Garage and stole a quantity of automobile accessories. On Wednesday night John and Ab. Bailey suspented the charged for at the following rates. Births thieves might return so kept 50c; Marriages, 50c; Deaths 50c; Meme- watch on the premises from across the street. Between two and three o'clock, just as the brothers were about to go into their home on John Street, one of them noticed two men approach the garage. They, immediately returned but when the intrudere saw them they ran and another of the gang ran out of the Creamery where he had been preparing to blow the safe. This last man the Bailey boys tackled and captured down in the creek after a very hard struggle in which it was necessary to give Church, Guelph, exchanged with him a couple of raps with the butt the Rector and Choir of St. of a gun. About this time Mr. M. Saxe, who had heard the noise, arrived on the scene and securing some rope tied the burglar up. 50 voices very carefully trained by Officer Atkins were phoned for and

The prisoner, who gave his name us Juck Armstrong, was lodged in Milton jail the following day and The service was entirely oboral we understand will come up for Much credit is due Jack and Ab. Bailey for the courageous manner in which they tackled the gang
