Glenwilliams

Cheltenham Blue Jays won a hard fought battle against Glen Williams last Saturday afternoon on the grounds here. The Glen keeping the lead from beginning of the first period, which they closed with two goals to Cheltenham's 0, at the end of the fourth period, the score was a tie 4 to 4. Ten minutes overtime was played and within the first minute of the overtime, Carey landed the winning goal for Cheltenham. T. Allen, Glenwilliams, was the referee.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Christie and family of East Rochester visited relatives in the Glen over the week end.

Mr. Joseph Switzer of St George conducted the services in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening in the absence of the Pastor, Rev. W. H. Douglas.

The L.O.L. fyfe and drum band led the Orange church parade at Georgetown on Sunday evening. A large number of our local members attended the service.

Mr. Thomas Beaumont of Toronto was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Radley of Auburn, N.Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs W. Gill last week.

Holy Communion next Sunday in St. Alban's Church at 9.30 a.m.

—Remember Chautauqua! 5 big days starting July 29th.

—Fleming's Shoe Store is installing modern shoe repairing machinery.

—The old-fashioned man who used to give his wife a cook stove for Christmas now gives her a can opener.

—An automobile ran into a man on horseback, near Kitchener, recently. As a consequence of the law suit which followed it may become necessary for horses to wear tail lights.
