Group, the British Lion, symbolizing the British Empire, is accompanied by a dignified figure of Winged Victory marching at his side, extending in her right hand the emblem of the crown of olives, over the names of the warriors who served and suffered in her just cause, and in her left hand grasping the Sword of the State, encased in sheath and trappings emblematical of Peace. The sword and hilt together form the Cross, and this appears in the sculptured group, mmediately over the centre of the Memorial, thereby emthe idea of the "Supreme Sacrifice" of those who

The Unveiling Ceremonies

The Order of Berbice

PRAYER -Canon Woodcock HYMN

1. O God our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come. Our shelter from the stormy blast. And our eternal home.

Thy saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defence is sure. 3. Before the hills in order stood. Or earth received her frame

2. Beneath the shadow of Thy throne

From everlasting Thou art God To endless years the same. A thousand ages in Thy sight

Are like an evening gone. Before the rising sun. 5. Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away;

They fly forgotten as a dream Dies at the opening day. O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come,

Be Thou our guard while troubles last. And our eternal home. Amen. CHAIRMAN'S REMARKS

UNVEILING - by Sir Arthur Currie. DEDICATION - by Canon Woodcock. ADDRESS - by Sir Arthur Currie.

LAST POST

REVEILLE 'HYMN Abide w., me ! fast falls the eventide; The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide: When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,

Help of the helpless, O abide with me. 2. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day: Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away; Change and decay in all around I see:

. () Thou Who changest not, abide with me

3. I need Thy presence every passing hour; What but The grace can foil the tempter's power Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me. 4. I fear no fee with Thee at hand to bless;

lils have no weight and tears no bitterness;

Where is death's sting? where, grave thy victory? I triumph still if Thou abide with me. Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies Heaven's morning breaks and earth's vain shadows flee: In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen
